Web Extras

Fall 2009

Welcome to the Hear Ye Hear Ye Web Extras. Web Extras are designed for the Hear Ye Hear Ye (HYHY) reader with Internet access. Web Extras enable the HYHY staff to bring additional information and tools to you our reader. This format relieves us from space limitations and allows us to provide additional useful information to you.

The HYHY staff is keenly aware of the fact that not all RGS members live in the Rochester area. One of our goals is to increase value to out of town members by: providing specific information about Rochester and the region; providing tools and links to assist in research; and making information available that members miss by not being able to attend meetings. Web Extras is one step toward reaching that goal.

Unlike our previous editions of Web Extras, this edition does not contain hyperlinks from the current edition of the Hear Ye Hear Ye. This is no longer necessary because the fall issue of the Hear Ye Hear Ye is available online where all hyperlinks are active. See the insert in the fall issue for the web address to access the online version of the Hear Ye Hear Ye.

This edition of Web Extras contains additional information for readers who are interested in researching more about Pittsford, NY and ancestors who lived there.

We hope you find the Web Extras useful and that you will take the time to further explore the RGS web page. We welcome your comments and suggestions. You can contact the HYHY staff at hyheditor@gmail.com with comments, suggestions, questions or article submissions.

On the Town of Pittsford

Audrey Johnson, author of the article On the Town of Pittsford, is the Pittsford Town/Village Historian. She has some Federal and State census record and is a source for information about the town and village. She is also a source for information about Pittsford Cemetery and Pioneer Cemetery.

To contact her:

Audrey M. Johnson

Pittsford Cemetery Tours

Each year, the Pittsford Town/Village Historian Audrey Johnson, conducts walking tours of the Pittsford Town Cemetery in May and the Pittsford Pioneer Cemetery in October. Highlighting past residents and their connection to Pittsford, Mrs. Johnson's tours are educational as well as entertaining as she brings the town's ancestors "back to life" for all that attend.

Contact the Pittsford Recreation Department at (585) 248-6280 for exact dates and to sign up for either of these tours.

Pittsford Timeline
