	The Episcopal Church's work among the deaf in western New York began in the 1840's with visits by the Rev. Thomas Gallaudet, D. D., of New York City, to Rochester and Buffalo. Missionaries to the deaf like the Rev. A. W. Mann and the Rev. J. M. Kochler probably served occasionally. About 1890-1 Charles Davis Dantzer of Buffalo began work first as a lay-reader and later as an ordained clergyman. He was succeeded by the Rev. Franklin C. Amielau about 1900, and the Rev. Harry J. Van Allen took over work in the Diocese of Western New York in 1916. Mr. Van Allen died in April, 1919, and the Rev. Herbert C. Merrill began work in the Dioceses of Albany, Central New York, and Western New York in October, 1919. January 1, 1932, the division of the Diocese of Western New York into the Dioceses of Western New York and that of Central New York became effective, the Rev. Mr. Merrill continuing work in both as well as in the Diocese of Albany and Central New York. Records prior to 1916 are fragmentary. The entries in this book from 1916 to 1931, inclusive, are copied from the Register of the Mission to the Deaf of the Diocese of Western New York.
