Church Memorializes Corporal Semmler

A service of dedication in memory of Corporal David Albert Semmler took place in the Immanuel Evangelical Lutheran Church on Sunday, October 31. Corporal Semmler was killed in action in Viet Nam on February 5, 1971.

CPL. DAVID SEMMLER

The sanctuary light and processional cross were dedicated in his memory. Throughout his life, Corporal Semmler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert F. Semmler of Hatch Road was a member of the Lutheran Church.

Born in Victor, Corporal Semmler lived in Rochester before moving to Hatch Road, in Penfield. He was a graduate of R. L. Thomas, class of 1966, a student at Akron University, Akron, Ohio, Rochester Business Institute and Rochester Institute of Technology.

He entered the Army in June, 1970 and served in the infantry. He received the Purple Heart, the Bronze Star, the Infantry badge and four marksmen badges. A citation by President Richard Nixon presented posthumously stated, "His initiative, zeal, sound judgment and devotion to duty have been in the highest tradition of the United States Army and reflected great credit on himself, his unit and military service."

WEBSTER HERALD, Webster, N.Y., October 4, 1950

Former Pastor Speaks At Fete

REV. ERICH O. BRANDT

Rev. Erich O. Brandt, former pastor of Immanuel Evangelical Lutheran Church will be the guest speaker, Friday, October 4 at the Hospitality House, when over 200 members of the church gather to celebrate at their 100th Anniversary banquet.

Rev. Brandt, a graduate of the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Philadelphia, was installed as Pastor of Immanuel on October 8, 1939. During Rev. Brandt's pastorate, the last step in the transition from German to English was taken, the church celebrated its Diamond Jubilee with special services and property improvements, and the 80th Anniversary was marked by the installation of memorial stained glass windows, tower music and other gifts.

In October of 1950, Pastor Brandt left Webster to accept a call to a Manchester, Connecticut congregation. He is now Pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, New Britain, Conn.

Since 1950, the pastor of Immanuel, has been Rev. Franklin K. Blank, who served St. Matthews Church in Oswego and Grace
