ROCHESTER, NEW YORK
Rev. William S. McCoy, Rector

To the Trustees and Congregation of Lakeside Presbyterian Church: -

In the death of your much-beloved Pastor, the Reverend Walter Benjamin Jorris, we feel that the community and our congregation have suffered a great loss. He was a man of kindly Christian character, an earnest laborer in the vineyard, an ornament to the Ministry, and friend to all people of good will. We are thankful that his short ministry in Charlotte was so greatly blessed in the bringing of so many to a knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, and we do most earnestly pray that through the years the residents of this Community may ever recall the words and the example of Walter Benjamin Jorris, who, like the Master he served, "went about doing good."

Therefore, be it

Resolved, that this Memorial be sent to the Trustees and Congregation of Lakeside Presbyterian Church, and to Mrs. Jorris, and be entered upon the records of St George's Parish.

Done in behalf of the Congregation of St George's Church, assembled for Divine Worship on Septuagesima Sunday, February 12, 1922.

Rev. Walter B. Jorris Dies Unexpectedly; Was Pastor Of Lakeside Presbyterian Church

The Rev. Walter B. Jorris, pastor of Lakeside Presbyterian Church, died unexpectedly at his home at 335 River street, Twenty-third ward, about 12:30 o'clock this morning, following a stroke of apoplexy.

Mr. and Mrs. Jorris had entertained a class of girls of the church at their home early last evening, when Mr. Jorris remarked that he had been feeling unusually well. He was taken ill about 10:30 o'clock, and medical aid which was summoned was of no avail.

Mr. Jorris had been pastor of Lakeside Church for the past two years, and during his pastorate had greatly endeared himself to the members of the congregation. Lakeside Church is the oldest church in the old village of Charlotte. Under Mr. Jorris' ministrations the benevolences of the church were increased ten-fold, and the general work of the church was in a very prosperous condition. Mr. Jorris was the second pastor the church has had within the past 15 years.

Mr. Jorris was born in Poland, Indiana, about 45 years ago, and graduated from Westminster College in 1895. He graduated from Auburn Theological Seminary in 1898, was licensed by the Reformed Church in the same year, and in July, 1898, he was ordained by the Philadelphia Classis of the Reformed Church.

Coming to the Rochester Presbytery on April 14, 1913, from the Presbytery of Cayuga, Mr. Jorris became pastor of Grace Presbyterian Church in Lyell avenue. Answering the call to service, he served overseas in the World War as a chaplain, being one of the most active chaplains connected with the A. E. F. and being especially popular among the soldiers.

He was one of the latest to come back from service overseas, and then went to Lakeside Church. He was secretary of the Rochester Ministerial Association, members of which were greatly shocked at his unexpected death.

Mr. Jorris leaves his wife, Harriet C. Jorris, who is very active in D. A. R. and C. A. R. work and who is considered an authority on flag etiquette; several brothers and one sister. Funeral services will be held privately from the home on Friday afternoon, and also from the church, the hour to be announced later.
