A - Location for Mary H. Rochester (not buried in "A")
 B - " - Montgomery Rochester

Albany, N. Y., Mch. 18th. 1911.

Mr. John W. Keller, Supt.
Mt. Hope Cemetery,
Rochester, N. Y.

Dear Sir;

I enclose diagram of "Rochester Hill" which I believe is approximately correct, and have indicated thereon the precise locations for the graves of my Mother and myself, when our time comes.

I understood you to advise me that there was room in lot 5½ for two graves, side by side; though as I believe this lot is quite narrow, it may be necessary to have the grave of my Mother slightly to the south of the line directly back of where my Father - Montgomery Rochester - is buried, so as to allow of room for myself directly north of where my Mother will be placed.

As this lot, 5½, is in the name of John H. Rochester, Trustee, I wish to say that I have made arrangements with Mr. Paul A. Rochester, the son and successor of John H. Rochester, to give up my interest in middle part of lot 11 (given me by Caroline L. Rochester) for the locations in lot 5½ as specified; and Paul A. Rochester will confirm this arrangement, if you so desire.

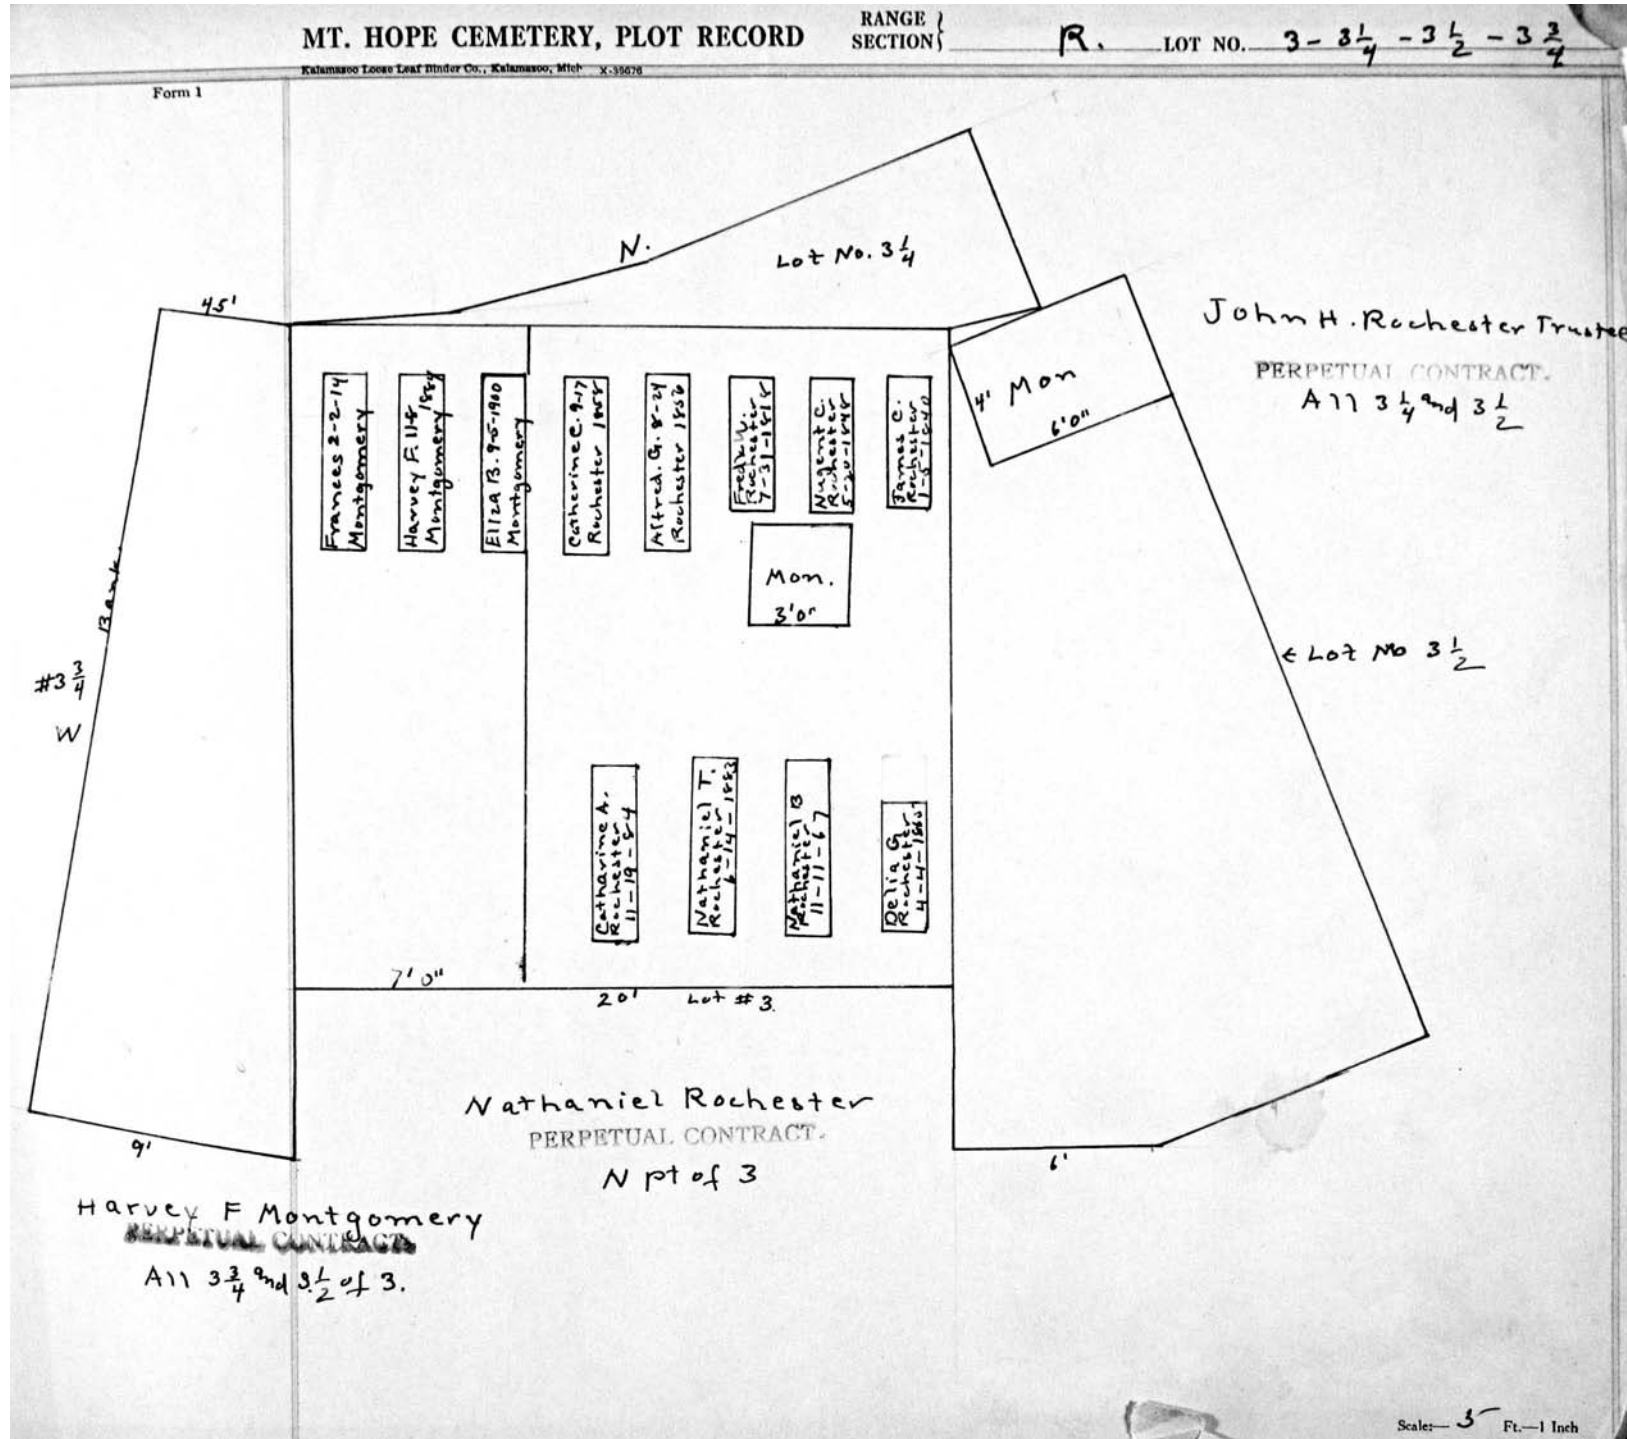

The plan for Perpetual Care of "Rochester Hill" is being carried through, and I have nearly the full amount collected or subscribed, and hope the matter will be finished up this Spring.

Yours very truly,

W. A. T. Rochester
(435 State St.)
