The clergy of St Paul's being this morning providentially on a visit to the Alms-House, and learning that one inmate had died & ~~was~~ awaiting burial, offered their services in reference to his interment, which were cordially accepted and the other inmates of the place being gathered, the burial service was performed at the house square. - P. D. -

The burial service of the Church, was performed at St Paul's but the grave at Mt Hope, and a sermon at St Paul's, by Rev. Mr. Van Dyke. Mrs Tucker had been a guest here for many months, from Newelgia disease, aggravated & made fatal, by the pangs of child birth.

This young man, it is agreed was of an ingenuous disposition, very upright & affectionate - but complying - and had gone too far in giving companionship, who were his death. His mother & sisters were in England -

The church service at the house, & an exposition of last verse of lessons - & service at grave. - Parson's Millenies.

Mr Wright was the father of an interesting family - emigrated from North of Ireland at June 1843 - a son of the Church - and also his wife several of the children. His death was from disease of the heart, aggravated by imprisonment, which however did not sour his temper. His decline was without pain. A remarkable case. Summe service at church & a brief lecture from Ps 39: 14. He has left a wife & two children. Service at house, with remarks on 1 Cor. XV. 51 & 52.

Mrs. Wardell was baptized in Church of England, not confirmed a Communicant - The ladies of the congregation met & made up clothes, at Mrs. Bond's for the children of the family - Seven in number - and showed much kindness. Born in service, with remarks at house of R. B. Brown - she died under many pains from Cancer of the breast - This was an interesting case, as mentioned in our Sunday School - and it was felt to be a merciful Providence, by which she was brought to pass through her last illness with her beloved mother - Her humble & devout demeanor, & calm composure, filled her poor mother with gratitude & comfort. - She had seemed to be laid here, by the side of her father.

A Family of English people - intelligent, & interesting - who had passed through the trials of strangers - and lost a parent through the seductions of evil associations at a moment of discouragement.

From parish of Ballantrae, W. of Mass - nominally a Methodist in their Country - having lived a life of neglect, when seductions overtook him.
He sought the services of a "Priest," and claimed the Communion as his right - His impiety to see it was constantly set before him, and every means employed (with some success) to bring him to the exercise of a godly sorrow -

A native of England, and for more than a year past, a resident of St Paul's parish in this City - An upright man, and a much and confident Christian - He was born in the town of Lancaster,
