And Summary of Parochial Statistics.

BUFFALO:

M.DCCCLXIX.

NOTE.

It may often be found convenient to arrange the Index of this Register in the form of an Index Rerum, by dividing the space given to each initial into five subdivisions, headed each with an initial and vowel, the latter representing the first vowel of the name, as An, Ae, Ai, Ao, Ay, &c. The proportions of the vowels under different initials may be readily found by looking through any alphabetical list—as the Clergy List in the Church Almanac—or, still better, by first preparing a list from the Parish Records, and regulating the spaces accordingly.

March 26, 1870

The following is taken from a work entitled, "Rochester and Western New York, by Henry C. Riley. Published in 1838-

"Grace Church - Formerly St. Pauls"

This Society was formed in May 1827, in part from Members of the Congregation of St. Luke's - The Rev. Sutherland Douglass was called to the Rectorship in April, 1828 & resigned in Aug. 1829 - The edifice was consecrated in Aug. 1830 - In November following, the Rev. Chauncy Colton was called to the Rectorship & resigned in Dec. 1831 - In 1832, the Rev. Burston W. Hickox was called to the Pastoral Charge; he resigned in December 1833 -

On the 10th. of Feb. 1834, the Corporation of St. Pauls Church dissolved itself -

Soon afterwards, a corporation under the style of Grace Church, purchased the edifice of St. Pauls & commenced public worship under the preaching of the Rev. Mr. Hickox, who was called by this Society on resigning the Charge of St. Pauls, before the dissolution of the latter Society - Mr. W. resigned on the 18th. of Feb. 1835, & the present Rector, the Rev. Orange Clark, was invited to the office on the 20th. Sept. 1835 -

The building which is still commonly called St. Pauls, is of stone, & in the Gothic

After undergoing extensive repairs Grace Chh. was reopened by a form prepared by the Bishop of the Diocese, & by request of the vestry, the Bishop, it was named St. Pauls Church. Thus coming back to its old & more appropriate name - The repairs cost over $20,000 - The corporate & legal title is still Grace Church - The change of name only reaches the congregation - St. Pauls congregation worshipping in Grace Church
