OUR HOMES AND OUR HOMELESS
167 Dearborn St., Room 712. - CHICAGO, ILL.

Organized to find family homes for homeless, neglected or abused children and youths, also members with children without separating them, and ex-prisoners.

Chicago, March 17, 1893

The Rev. Leonard Foote, Rochester, New York.

My Dear Brother:-

A lady by the name of Mrs. Myrtle Bond permits me to refer to you for reference. Her husband is in Shanghai, China, and she desires to soon return to him. In the meantime desires to inaugurate some business with this office.

Do you know Mr. and Mrs. Bond? Do you believe them to be of good moral and christian character? Is it probable that their home would be reckoned a Christian home? Enclosed is stamp for reply.

Thanking you in advance for the courtesy of a reply,

Very respectfully,

Geo. K. Hoover.

Dear Sir

I have much pleasure in saying that Mr Mackay & family are communicants (i.e. the adults) and are very faithful in attendance

Letter to L. C. Nicholson
Rochester, N.Y.

Rev. & Dear Sir,

I beg to commend to your pastoral care the bearer of this note, Mrs. Graham, who with her family, is about to take up her residence in Rochester. Her eldest son has been in the city for some time. They are members in good standing of the congregation here, and I trust they will feel at home in the congregation they attach themselves to with you. You will oblige me by assisting them to settle down by direction & advice.

I am, Dear Sir,
Yours faithfully,
Chas. H. Young.

My dear Brother

I have two sons living in Rochester whom I should be pleased to have you consider under your pastoral care. The oldest, Edward C. Perrine, is married & lives at 466 Mt. Hope Avenue, but is employed in W.D. Chapman's Sons Store 121 State St. He has a very good voice & if there is a place for him in your Choir, I wish he might be there. He is rather diffident, but may need some persuasion to induce him to try it, but I feel it would be an advantage to him & some help to the Choir if you will kindly take an interest in him. His younger brother, Wm. D. Perrine, boards with him, but is employed in the Central N.Y. Trighs office & often has to be there, part of the time on Sunday, it is more difficult for him to get to Ch. tho' he tries to be there evenings. Both are Communicants of the Ch. & both like to attend St. Paul's, but Ed's wife is not yet a Communicant & not even bapt. but I am in hope she soon will be both. Commending them all to your kind pastoral care I am very sincerely, your Bro in X^o Ch.

My dear Father,

Doubtless you will be very much interested in learning the result of the interview wh. the Com. of the Ascension had quite recently with the Bishop.

If you will be good enough to stop in to Mr. Lathams', 44 East Ave., some time - he will give you all the particulars, as he was one of the Com. & presents one aspect of the situation.

I may say that it
