Prayer for New Year's

Eternal God, Thou who art the unfailing source of light and mercy, Who hast brought us to a new year and art ever eager for us to love Thee and to keep Thy commandments; prepare us, we beseech Thee, for the coming days. Let Thy grace lighten our darkness and strengthen our weakness. Help us to forget the sins and sorrows of the past, cherishing only the wisdom and humility they have taught us. Inspire us with new purposes and new hopes, and deepen within our hearts the love of truth and goodness. Whatever light may shine or shadow fall, keep us, we pray, in the fellowship of those who trust and obey Thee, and in the love and service of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

In all He sends, God bless your year.

A Prayer of Confession

Most gracious God, who art ever more ready to hear than we are to pray; who knowest our necessities before we ask, and our ignorance in asking, behold us here, coming from all our various homes and works, with all our different faults and needs, asking in a common prayer for light upon our way and for joy within our hearts. Our prayer is but an answer to Thy call, our worship is but return of the wandering child to the Father's home. Bring such answer to sincere and simple prayer as each on us severally needs, we pray, and give us all the inner peace of mind which world can neither give nor take away through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Almighty and most merciful Father, we have erred and strayed from Thy ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against Thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; and we have done those things which we ought not to have done; and there is no health in us. But Thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders. Spare Thou those, O God, who confess their faults. Restore Thou those who are penitent; according to Thy promises declared unto mankind through Christ Jesus, our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for His sake, that we may hereafter live a Godly, righteous and sober life, to the glory of Thy holy name. Amen.

ymca sunday

In America as in no other country we truly "go to different churches together." We worship as we please . . . in many different ways . . . sometimes even argue about which is best. Yet the fact is, our American spirit of service to others, our respect for fair play and, indeed, our great strength as a nation have come about largely because as Christians we have always worked together for things that are good, no matter what our creed.

This is YMCA Sunday, a day on which we recognize the close partnership which exists between the "Y" and the Church. For more than a century the YMCA has been the right arm of the Church, leading young people to the living Christ . . . helping make sure that future generations continue to go to different churches together.

Youngsters in YMCA groups represent all religions, all denominations. But with the patient hand of the "Y" on their shoulders, they learn to live as Christians in the most practical way . . . by doing.

Whether sponsoring a paper drive to help boys and girls in a war-torn Korea or contributing hard-earned money to give some needy family a better Christmas, they're doing something for somebody else.

That's practical Christianity.

And experience shows that in future years these YMCA young people will continue to serve God by living as Christians . . . worshipping in their own churches, working together to help their fellow men, doing unto others . . .

On this YMCA Sunday your Young Men's Christian Association pledges its continuing cooperation with the Church in helping keep America a land where all may go to different churches together.

O God, Thou who art great enough to be father of all and who hast made of one blood all nations of men to dwell together in peace, we would grow in grace that we may be worthy to be called Thy sons. Forgive us that we have not always lived in the spirit of Jesus, who knew all men as brothers. Cleanse our hearts, we beseech Thee, of the dark sin of pride; and forgive us for our unbelief in the sacredness of all personality. Grant Thy rich blessing upon Thy children in every land; help them to realize Thy living presence and fill them with the spirit of loyalty and love to Thee. As they have the same heavenly Father and are beckoned to the same heavenly life, may they live together in sympathy and helpfulness. ## MORNING PRAYER AND SERMON

TEN - THIRTY O'CLOCK

Keep silence, friend, for some have come to cast their care on God today;
And some to praise from thankful hearts, and some, "Thy kingdom come" to pray;
Keep silence; let Him speak anew
To every heart, perhaps to you.

O God, give us grace and strength to forbear and to persevere; give us courage and gaiety and the quiet mind; spare to us our friends, soften to us our enemies,
and bless us in all our innocent endeavor.
Deliver us from fear and favor, from mean hopes and cheap pleasures. Have mercy on each in his deficiency; let him not be cast down. Give us the strength to encounter that which is to come, that we may be brave in peril, constant in tribulation, temperate in wrath and in all change of fortune, and down to the gates of death loyal and loving to one another.

O, God, Eternal source of wisdom, power, and love, lead us through all the changes and chances of this mortal life, to rest our spirits upon those eternal foundations which Thou has laid for us, to pierce through the transient and superficial to that which abides. Save us, O God, from fever and restlessness, from haste and confusion, from noise and perpetual movement. Draw us back into those recesses of the spirit where Jesus was one with Thee. Lift our vision that we may see the appeal of some task that is commensurate with Thy greatness. Before all voices which whisper to us of ease and caution and compromise, make us to feel the compulsion of Thy desires, and the power of Thy indwelling love. Lead us to a deeper understanding of Thy message to us and to our world, in Christ. Amen.

THE CROSS

His cross was but
 A common thing—
 Of cypress wood
 Upon a tired hill.
 Desolate, it stood;

And yet its arms have reached from sea to sea
 Arms so strong they have set men free;
 And love so bright burning long ago
 Changed the cross to gold with its glow.

My cross sometimes
 Is a weary thing
 Too hard to bear
 A tiny ugly thing
 It floods my life
 In hapless care:
 But with his love
 I too will make
 That cross of gold
 And pour the dark
 Tear stained wood
 Into His mould.
 My cross can never
 Stretch its arms
 From sea to sea
 But it can raise
 My heart to God
 And set me free.

The Prayer of Petition

Most gracious God, who art ever more ready to hear than we are to pray, who knowest our necessities before we ask, and our ignorance in asking, behold us here, coming from all our various homes and works, with all our different faults and needs, asking in a common prayer for light upon our way and for peace within our hearts. Our prayer is but an answer to Thy call, our worship is but the return of the wandering child to the Father's home. Bring such answer to our sincere and simple prayer as each one of us severally needs; and give to us all the inner peace of mind which the world can neither give nor take away through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

For a few weeks let those obtrusive worldlinesses which block the doors to our hearts stand back; and let the way be clear, that he who longs to enter in and help us may meet no obstacle. "If any man will hear my voice and open unto me, I will come and sup with him," says Jesus. To still the clatter and tumult a little so that we may hear his voice—this is the privilege of the Lenten weeks.

PALM SUNDAY

Into the city streets the palms were strewn
That He who rode that way at dawn might know
So dust nor dirt to soil His Kingly robes.
They little dreamed a borrowed beast, too slow
To move the sands, would bear this man, that He Would choose a peasant's faded gown to wear
Upon His entry to Jerusalem.

No jeweled crown, no sceptre met the stare
Of crowds that lined the street. The King rode Amid the cheers He heard them call His nam
"Hosanna, Hosanna in the highest! King
Of All!" How brief this world's acclaim!
There is no road to lasting power. We still Tread paths that lead to crosses on a hill.

The Prayer of Petition

Eternal Father of us all, who art ever mindful of our frailties yet dost expect much from us, deliver us, we beseech Thee, from the deceptions of selfish pomp and vain glory; and save us from the pride that would hold us aloof from Him who was the Teacher of the poor in spirit. Help us to bring our palms of praise to Christ, who sought no glory

but to do Thy will on earth, and desired nothing for Himself but the privilege of giving Himself, that He might make known Thy love to men. As on this day we keep the special memory of His triumphal entry into the city, so grant, O God, that now and ever He may triumph in our hearts. Amen.

O Searcher of hearts, Thou knowest us better than we know ourselves, and seest the sins which our sinfulness hides from us. Yet even our own conscience beareth witness against us, that we often slumber on our appointed watch; that we walk not always lovingly with each other, and humbly with Thee; that we withhold that entire sacrifice of ourselves to Thy perfect will without which we are not crucified with Christ, nor sharers of His redemption. Oh, look upon our contrition and lift up our weakness; let the dayspring yet arise within our hearts, and bring us healing, strength, and joy. Day by day may we grow in faith, in self-denial, in charity, in heavenly-mindedness. And then, mingle us at last with the mighty host of Thy redeemed forevermore, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

O God, before whose face the generations rise and pass away; age after age the living seek Thee, and find that of Thy faithfulness there is no end. Our fathers in their pilgrimage walked by thy guidance, and rested on thy compassion; still to us their children be thou the pillar of cloud by day and fire by night. In our manifold temptations, thou alone knowest, and art ever nigh; in sorrow, thy pity revives the fainting soul; in our prosperity and ease, it is thy spirit only that can wean us from our pride and keep us low. O Thou sole Source of peace and righteousness, take now the veil from every heart, and join us in one communion with thy prophets and saints who have trusted in thee, and were not ashamed. Not of our worthiness but of thy tender mercy, hear our prayer through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

TEN - THIRTY O'CLOCK

Friend, you enter this Church not as a stranger, but as a guest of God. He is your heavenly Father. Come, then, with joy in your heart and thanks on your lips into His presence, offering Him your love and service. Beseech His blessing on those who love this home of faith as the inspiration of their labour, rejoicing in the power of the Holy Spirit, and may that blessing rest on you, both on your going out and on your coming in.

GOD OF GRACE AND GOD OF GLORY

God of grace and God of glory,
On Thy people pour Thy power;
Crown Thine ancient Church's story;
Bring her bud to glorious flower.
Grant us wisdom,
Grant us courage,
For the facing of this hour.

Lo! the hosts of evil round us
Scorn thy Christ, assail His ways!
Fears and doubts too long have bound
us,
Free our hearts to work and praise.
Grant us wisdom,
Grant us courage,
For the living of these days.

Cure thy children's warring madness.
Bend our pride to Thy control;
Shame our wanton selfish gladness,
Rich in things and poor in soul.
Grant us wisdom,
Grant us courage,
Lest we miss thy kingdom's goal.

Set our feet on lofty places;
Gird our lives that they may be
Armored with all Christlike graces
In the fight to set men free.
Grant us wisdom,
Grant us courage,
That we fail not man nor Thee!

Save us from weak resignation
To the evils we deplore;
Let the search for Thy salvation
Be our glory evermore.
Grant us wisdom,
Grant us courage,
Serving Thee whom we adore.

MORNING PRAYER AND SERMON TEN-THIRTY O'CLOCK

The doors of this church are as broad as the love of God. Whoever you are that worships here, in whatever household of faith you were born, whatever your race or nationality, if you come to this sanctuary to seek the God in Whom you may believe or to rededicate yourself to the God in Whom you do believe, you are welcome. May we all enter more fully upon the Christian obedience, that we may be loyal to Jesus Christ and helpful to man, eager to do His will and to be guided by His Spirit, and brave to speak and act for Him. Let the stranger within our gates make himself known to us, sign the guest card in the pew, and join in our fellowship as a full participant in the worldwide Christian enterprise.

The Prayer of Petition
Our Lord and God, Thou whose spirit searchest all things and whose love beareth all things, encourage us to draw near to Thee in sincerity and in truth. Save us from worshipping Thee with our lips while our hearts are far from Thee. Save us from attempting to conceal ourselves from Thee, who searchest every heart. Make us strong enough to bear the truth, and have done with all falsehood, pretense and hypocrisy, so that we may see things as they are, and fear no more.
Enable us to look upon Thy love, which has borne with us, and Thy heart that suffers for us. Help us to acknowledge our dependence on the purity that abides our uncleanness, the patience that forgives our faithlessness, the truth that forbears all our falsity and compromise. And may we have the grace of gratitude, and the desire to dedicate ourselves to Thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty and most merciful Father; we have erred and strayed from Thy ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against Thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; And we have done those things which we ought not to have done; And there is no health in us. But Thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders. Spare Thou those, O God, who confess their faults. Restore Thou those who are penitent; According to Thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for His sake; That we may hereafter live a godly, righteous and sober life; To the glory of Thy holy name.

AT A CHURCH SERVICE

God bless all those whose membership is here:
Thy people, Lord, who love Thy house and Thine,
And may we find in Thy great book at last,
Each name recorded for Eternity.

God bless the strangers gathered in our midst:
Lonely, perhaps, and far from home they need
The blessed comfort of their Father's house,
The proffered bread of life on which to feed.

God bless the one who here propounds Thy truths,
Be in his heart, speak through the words he speaks,
That every listening, eager one may find
The wisdom and the comfort that he seeks.

And when at last, the benediction said,
May we go, strengthened for the days ahead.

Grace Tull Crowell

When Albrecht Dürer (from whose "Folded Hands" the cover design was adapted) was a poor struggling artist, a friend of his who also aspired to be an artist made an agreement with him that he would do manual labor to earn their living while Dürer studied and painted. Later, it was planned, he should have his turn to paint. But when success came to Dürer his friend's hands had become so twisted and stiff that he could no longer paint. One day, seeing his friend's work-worn hands in prayer, Dürer thought, "I can never give back the lost skill of those hands, but I can show my feeling of love and gratitude by painting his hands as they are now, folded in prayer, to show my appreciation of a noble and unselfish character."

"As for me, I never lived. I was half dead, I was a rotting tree, until I reached the place where I wholly, with utter honesty, resolved and often re-resolved that I would find God's will, would do that will though every fiber in me said no, and would win the battle in my thoughts. This is my prayer to Thee, my Lord — Strike at the root of penury in my heart. Give me the strength lightly to bear my joys and sorrows. Give me the strength to make my love fruitful in service, and never to disown the poor or bend my knees before insolent might. Give me the strength to raise my mind high above daily trifles, and to surrender my strength to Thy will with love.

Third Presbyterian Church

O God, Who makest Thyself known in the stillness; let us feel Thy presence in this sacred place.

Make us to be of the company of brave saints who have worshipped here in spirit and in truth and of that other company of Christians all over the world who today rededicate their lives to Thee. May the Church invisible be real to us.

So purify our lives, O Lord, that going forth into the world, we may go in strength and in Thy love, through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

BEATITUDES: NEW AND OLD

"The Beatitudes of Many Ordinary People"

"Happy are the pushers: for they get on in the world.
Happy are the hard-boiled: for they never let life hurt them.
Happy are they who complain: for they get their own way in the end.
Happy are the blase: for they never worry over their sins.
Happy are the slave-drivers: for they get results.
Happy are the knowledgeable men of the world: for they know their way around.
Happy are the troublemakers: for they make people take notice of them."

The Beatitudes of Jesus:

"Happy are the humble-minded: for they already belong to the Kingdom of Heaven!
Happy are those who know what sorrow means: for they will be given courage and comfort!
Happy are those who claim nothing: for the whole earth will belong to them!
Happy are those who are hungry and thirsty for goodness: for they will be fully satisfied.
Happy are the kind-hearted: for they will have kindness shown to them!
Happy are the pure in heart: for they shall see God!
Happy are those who make peace: for they will be known as sons of God!"

MORNING WORSHIP IN THE CHURCH

Ten-Thirty O'Clock

Whoever you are that worship here, in whatever household of faith you were born, whatever your race or nationality, if you come to this sanctuary to seek God and to rededicate yourself to Him you are welcome. May this service be for you a pathway into the presence of the Master. Be reverent, be silent, be thoughtful. Within thy spirit lift a prayer for thyself, for those who worship and those who minister here, and for the work of Christ in the world.

 ** (There may be ushering here and during the hymns)
 The Responsive Reading Selection 3
 The General Prayer
 O Thou whose glory filleth all things, whose greatness we can never find, but whose presence we would always seek, whose excellency is more than we can know, yet all that we adore, from the confused voices of our life we turn to Thy silent presence, from our dark and bounded sky we issue forth into Thy pure and infinite light. O come, Thou Holy Spirit, we beseech thee. Take from us the anxiety of a selfish mind, the unfruitfulness of cold affections, the weakness of an inconstant will. With the simplicity of a great purpose, the quiet of a meek temper, and the power of a well-ordered soul, may we pass through the toils and watches of our pilgrimage; grateful for all that may render the burden of duty light; and even in strong trouble rejoicing to be deemed worthy of the severer service of Thy will. Amen.

O God, Eternal Source of Wisdom, Power, and Love, lead us through all the change and chances of this mortal life, to rest our spirits upon those eternal foundations which Thou has laid for us, to pierce through the transient and superficial to that which abides. Save us, O God, from fever and restlessness, from haste and confusion, from noise and perpetual movement. Draw us back into those recesses of the spirit where Jesus was one with Thee. Lift our vision that we may see the appeal of some task that is commensurate with Thy greatness. Before all voices which whisper to us of ease and caution and compromise, make us to feel the compulsion of Thy desires, and the power of thy indwelling love. Lead us to a deeper understanding of thy message to us and to our world, in Christ. Amen

The Prayer of Intercession

O God, the Creator and Preserver of all mankind, we humbly beseech Thee for all sorts and conditions of men; that Thou wouldst be pleased to make Thy ways known unto them, Thy saving health unto all nations. More especially, we pray for Thy holy Church universal; that it may be so guided and governed by Thy good Spirit that all who profess and call themselves Christians may be led into the way of truth, and hold the faith in unity of spirit, in the bond of peace, and in righteousness of life. We commend to Thy fatherly goodness all those who are afflicted or distressed in mind, body or estate, that it may please Thee to comfort and relieve them according to their several necessities; giving them patience under their sufferings, and a happy issue out of all their afflictions. This we beg for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

* * * * *

When was there ever such an opportunity for Christian affirmation, for grasping the great Christian truths and flashing them in the abyss like flaming torches? Now is the time for the Christian doctrine of man, which proclaims that the human tragedy is due to the fact we men have been passing the "days of our years" off-centre. Contemporary man has not had a true perspective for his thinking, nor has his life revolved around God and God's purposes as the only true pivot of human existence. What an opportunity, also, to proclaim the Christian doctrine of God! Now is the moment to affirm God's righteousness and mercy, to proclaim that human off-centredness brings inevitable disorder in its train, to emphasize the fact that the life of mankind must be governed by everlasting law, to set in high relief that there can be no true peace in the arena of history save a peace upon whose cheek righteousness imprints its kiss, and above which mercy, which is over all God's works, erects its rainbow arch. Upon the one hand, man must be interpreted to himself; on the other hand, God and his ways must be interpreted to man.

John A. MacKay
 President, Princeton Seminary

LOYALTY

Loyalty is not a principle but a passion.
It is not moderated by time or circumstance or opinion.
It is not the mood of a moment but the commitment of a life.
It is your attitude toward what you believe and love,
The ultimate anchorage of your soul.
For this you have lived, suffered and would gladly die.
This must be perpetuated, handed on; it is more precious than gold or blood.
Only thus have I clean conscience, self-respect, happiness or hope;

And every day my loyalty is appraised.

THE CHURCH — OUR HOME OF FAITH

Friend, you enter this Church not as a stranger, but as a guest of God. He is your Heavenly Father.
Come, then, with joy in your heart and thanks on your lips into His presence, offering Him your love and service. Be grateful to the strong and loyal men who, in the name of Jesus Christ, builded this place of worship, and to all who have beautified it and hallowed it with their prayers and praises.
Beseech His blessing on those who love this home of faith as the inspiration of their labor, rejoicing in the power of the Holy Spirit, and may that blessing rest on you, both on your going out and on your coming in.

A CREED OF CONSECRATION

We believe that it is our duty, as servants and friends of Christ, to do good unto all men, to maintain the public and private worship of God, to hallow the Lord's day, to preserve the sanctity of the family, to uphold the just authority of the State, and so to live in all honesty, purity and charity that our lives shall testify of Christ. We joyfully receive the word of Christ, bidding His people go into all the world and make disciples of all nations, and declare unto them that God was in Christ reconciling the world unto Himself. In this faith we abide; in this service we labor; and in this hope we pray.

O God, who hast made man in Thine own likeness and who dost love all whom Thou has made, teach us the unity of Thy family and the breadth of Thy love. By the example of Thy Son, enable us, while loving and serving our own, to enter into the fellowship of the whole human family; and forbid that, from pride of race or hardness of heart, we should despise any for whom Christ died, or injure any in whom He lives. We thank Thee for all that Thou dost give us; grant us grateful hearts, and the willingness to use what we have for Thy glory and the service of mankind. Teach us that no man liveth unto himself alone, that life is a trust, and that only as we love others do we truly love Thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

THERE'S A CHRISTIAN PHILOSOPHY ABOUT GIVING

There are four areas of American life which Christians traditionally support from their private means: religion, education, community services, and other, non-local appeals. But of these four, religion is the only one entirely dependent on voluntary, individual gifts. No public funds raised by taxation are available to it. The support of the Church is the sole responsibility of Christian people.

Some of these will, out of sheer habit, make their gifts "the same as last year" regardless of circumstances . . . Some will give only a nominal amount because they are not deeply concerned about the Kingdom.

Most Third Church members, however will take their responsibilities more seriously, and will allocate a worthy proportion of their income to the Church of Christ. There is nothing different about the Church's appeal this year—no new, shiny models to offer, no glamorous gimmicks, no electronic short-cuts, no automation. The very unchanging sameness of her story is what gives it enduring value. The Church is here now for the same reason she has been since the first century, namely, to save the world: save it from greed, violence, hatred, and war; save it for brotherhood, kindness, justice, and peace. The Church is "an incurable beggar but stronger than all her patrons." She is "a citadel of hope built on the edge of despair." She asks the truly sacrificial support of every member so that together we all may come at least a little closer to meeting the world's tremendous need for the Gospel of Christ.

Third Presbyterian Church

We walk down the long days to Christmas
With the ox, the lamb and the ass;
The way is made gay with our singing
To lighten each heart as we pass.
We carry the candles of Christmas,
The candles of Advent burn bright,
Shining with faith, love and courage,
And laughter to light up the night.
We follow a high star to Christmas,
And walk down the days with a prayer;
May we make of the joy of our living
A gift for the child waiting there.

Christmas Morn
1955

What if there were no Christmas morn?
What if the Christ were never born?
No angel anthems from on high,
No starry splendor in the sky,
No shepherds hasting to proclaim Messiah born in Bethlehem?
That were a world of hope bereft,
With nothing that we value left.
There is no hope of peace on earth
Except we celebrate Christ's birth.

Our thanks to Mrs. Ralph Parks and her committee for the decoration of the church for the Christmas season.

The Christmas offering this year will be used for Church World Service, gifts to our missionaries, and the Rochester Presbytery Camp and Conference Center.

Recordings of our Junior Choir will be heard today at 1:35 over WVET on the national program, "Pilgrimage."

The Christmas luncheon for all of our students on vacation from colleges and preparatory schools and for our high school seniors will be held on Wednesday, at 12:15 in the Parish House. Those who have not made their reservations should do so before Tuesday noon by calling the church office, BR 6513.

On next Sunday, the first day of the New Year, we will celebrate Holy Communion at the chapel service at 9:30 and at the church service at 10:30. Let each be in his place that together we may begin the new year in God's presence and pray for His guidance. The ministers will take Communion Sunday afternoon to the homes of those for whom such a request is made.
