PRELUDE How Brightly Shines the Morning Star Buxtehude

PROCESSIONAL 632 What Star Is This, Puer Nobis with Beams So Bright
(The Choir only will sing stanzas 1 and 2.
The Congregation will stand after the second stanza, and join in the singing of stanzas 3 and 4.)

OPENING LITANY

Leader: Thus speaks the Lord who is God,
he who created the skies and stretched them out,
who fashioned the earth and all that grows in it,
People: *Who gave breath to its people,
the breath of life to all who walk upon it;*
Leader: I, the Lord, have called you with righteous purpose and taken you by the hand;
I have formed you, and appointed you to be a light to all peoples,
a beacon for the nations,
People: *To open eyes that are blind,
to bring captives out of prison,
out of the dungeons where they lie in darkness.*

PRAYER OF APPROACH

God of hope, who sent a star to guide wise men to where Christ was born: guide us by the light of your word, so we may come to him offering the gift of our lives, and go out into the world glorifying and praising you, for our Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON Isaiah 60:1-6

ANTHEM O Morning Star, How Fair and Bright Frankfort Come, heavenly Brightness! Light divine! O deep within our hearts now shine, and make you there an altar! Fill us with joy and strength to be your members joined with unity in love that cannot falter!
Toward you longing does possess us; turn and bless us; here in sadness eye and heart long for your gladness! Amen.

GOSPEL LESSON Matthew 2:1-5a, 7-11

ANTHEM Behold a Star Mendelssohn from Jacob Shining Behold a star from Jacob shining, and a scepter from Israel rising, to reign in glory over the nations.
Like some bright morning star is he, the promise of the coming day, beyond the night of sorrow. Break forth, O light! We our joyful hearts uplifting with thanksgiving, hail the brightness of thy rising.

FIRST LESSON

Isaiah 60:1-6

The prophet promises the coming of a Light which will bring joy to all who see it.

HYMN 521

O Morning Star, How Fair and Bright Frankfort (Sung by all; the congregation remains seated as the Choir processes to the Narthex) (omit stanza 3)

SECOND LESSON

Luke 2:1-7

The Evangelist tells of Jesus' birth.

ANTHEM

O Jesu So Sweet, O Jesu So Mild J.S. Bach

O Jesu, so sweet, O Jesu, so mild, thou cam'st to us a little child, from highest heav'n to earth below, because thy Father will'd it so, O Jesu, so sweet, O Jesu, so mild. We praise thy name, thou Holy Child. O may we learn as ne'er before to serve and love thee evermore, O Jesu, so sweet, O Jesu, so mild.

THIRD LESSON

Matthew 2:1-5a, 7-9

The Wise Men inquire where Christ is born.

ANTHEM

We Have Seen His Star

Titcomb

We have seen his star, his star in the East, and are come with our offerings to worship the Lord.

FOURTH LESSON

Matthew 2:10-11

The Wise Men worship the King of kings.

THE PROCESSION

The Star appears to lead the Wise Men to Bethlehem

Bright and Glorious Is the Sky

Arr. David Johnson

We Three Kings of Orient Are

John Hopkins

The congregation remains seated and sings stanzas 1 and 5 and all refrains

Stanza 1:

We three kings of Orient are;
Bearing gifts we traverse afar,
Field and fountain, moor and mountain,
Following yonder star.

a ruler bold, but only a baby came. They waited for a Prince to gain the throne, a Savior sent by God alone, a Lord with Kingdom yet unknown, but only a baby came.
'Twas but a babe who came that night, the wonder to proclaim; with brightest star to shed its light and set the world aflame! They waited for a word of truth divine, a heav'nly Dove, a Sacred sign, a living branch from Jesse's line, but only a baby came, only a babe to bear the shame, only a babe with love His name, only a lovely, Holy baby came.

INVITATION TO PRAISE Patricia K. Youngdahl

Leader: Now there comes upon us a holy daybreak.
Rise and praise our God with gladness.
For the Star we have looked for shines forth as a sign to all.

People: Alleluia! Alleluia!

+HYMN

Earth Has Many A Noble City Stuttgart
Sung by all, as the Choir processes to the sides of the sanctuary.

Earth has many a noble city;
Bethlehem, thou dost all excel;
Out of thee the Lord from heaven
Came to rule his Israel.

Fairer than the sun at morning
Was the star that told his birth,
To the world its God announcing,
Seen in fleshly form on earth.

Eastern sages at his cradle
Make oblations rich and rare;
See them give, in deep devotion,
Gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

Jesus, whom the Gentiles worshipped
At thy glad Epiphany, Unto thee, with God the Father,
And the Spirit, glory be. Amen.

+AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

We rejoice that for anyone who is in Christ,
there is a new creation;
the old creation has gone,
and now a new one is here.
All this is God's work.

It is God who reconciles us to himself through Christ and gives us the work of handing on this reconciliation.
For God was in Christ reconciling the world to himself, not holding our faults against us,
and God has entrusted to us the news that we are reconciled.

So we are ambassadors for Christ,
and the appeal we make in Christ's name is this:
Be reconciled to God and to all people.

Adapted from 11 Corinthians 5:17-20

The People Singing

O God of righteousness and grace,
Seen in the Christ, your Son,
Whose life and death reveal your face,
By whom your will was done;
Help us to spread your gracious reign
Till greed and hate shall cease,
And kindness dwell in human hearts,
And all the earth find peace!

+AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

In his concern for justice in the social order
God has never forgotten the needs of individuals.
In the end the Lord will judge all persons by the simple, unremembered acts of kindness they did or failed to do for the least of their sisters and brothers.
We acknowledge God is at work here and now when people show personal concern for each other and work to make helping agencies, including the church itself, more compassionate.

Church Calendar 1985

We are to give to them and receive from them,
accepting everyone we meet as a person;
to be sensitive to those who suffer in body or mind;
to help and accept help
in ways that affirm dignity and responsibility.
We must not limit our compassion to those we judge deserving,
for we ourselves do not deserve the compassion of God.

The People Singing
Let there be light, Lord God of hosts,
Let there be wisdom on the earth!
Let broad humanity have birth!
Let there be deeds instead of boasts!

Give us the peace of vision clear
To see each other's good our own
To joy and suffer not alone --
The love that casts away all fear!

CALL TO CONFESSION #Patricia K. Youngdahl

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Great God: your Son called disciples, and prayed for their unity. Forgive divisions. Help us to confess our lack of charity toward people whose customs are different, or whose creeds conflict with what we believe. Forgive arrogance that claims God's truth; that will not listen or learn new ways. Heal broken fellowship in your mercy, and draw the church together in one faith, loyal to one Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

ANTHEM Antiphon R. Vaughan Williams
Let all the world in every corner sing, my God and King. The heavens are not too high, His praise may thither fly. The earth is not too low, His praises there may grow, let all the world in every corner sing, my God and King. The Church with psalms must shout, no door can keep them out. But above all, the heart must bear the longest part.

NEW TESTAMENT LESSON Ephesians 4:1-16

SERMON Octave of Christian Unity Dennis O'Brien

+AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Leader: Gathered around the Word and sacraments, those who confess Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior, together with their children, have formed a corporate, visible body in pilgrimage with God across the centuries.

People: The Church has sought to order its life and ministry in obedience to the teaching of the first apostles. It has attempted to carry out Christ's commission in various institutional forms and structures that demonstrate both continuity and change.

Leader: We acknowledge that Christ chooses to be known in the world through this community of ordinary people,

People: Therefore we dare not despise or abandon the church.

Leader: Christ is the head of the church,

People: Therefore we are responsible to Christ when we make policy and decisions in the church.

Leader: Christ is the foundation of the church,

People: Therefore it will not fall despite our weakness.

All: We are confident that the Lord of the church will judge and defeat our sinful intentions and actions, help us in our weakness and blindness, and use the church to accomplish his purposes.

The People Singing
The Church's one foundation
Is Jesus Christ her Lord;

Church Calendar 1985

She is his new creation By water and the word;
From heaven he came and sought her
To be his holy bride;
With his own blood he bought her,
And for her life he died.

Elect from every nation,
Yet one o'er all the earth,
Her charter of salvation One Lord, one faith, one birth;
One holy name she blesses,
Partakes one holy food,
And to one hope she presses,
With every grace endued.

THE FLOWERS this morning are given to the Glory of God and in loving memory of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Mayne.

THE REPORT OF THE SANCTUARY TASK FORCE is available this morning in the Narthex of Chapel and in the Parlor. Included with the report are the Session resolution and a bibliography.

THE ANNUAL MEETINGS of the Congregation and Corporation of Third Church will be held following one service of worship at 10:00 a.m. in the Church next Sunday, February 3. New officers will be elected, the 1985 Budget approved, and changes in the Terms of Call for the pastors will be proposed. A congregational luncheon will follow the meetings in the Celebration Center. Annual Reports for 1984 are available at the Church exits, or in the office, this morning.

WE WELCOME DR. DENNIS O'BRIEN, President of the University of Rochester, to Third Church today as the preacher for the services in which we observe the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity.

A CONGREGATIONAL LUNCHEON will be held today following the 10:30 Church service. Everyone is invited to the Celebration Center for an inexpensive, buffet-style meal. No reservations needed.

PRESENTING THE MINUTE FOR MISSION this morning is Joanna Hobler, our Third Church Coordinator for Neighborhood Outreach.

PAMELA HARVEY is on retreat with the Singles Fellowship this weekend.

MARDI GRAS CELEBRATION! Tuesday, February 19 is the annual Church celebration to usher in Lent! The menu includes pancakes, clowns and a clown skit, dixieland jazz, and table activities. Tickets are $2.25 for everyone and are available outside the Celebration Center this morning.

SENIOR HIGH FELLOWSHIP From February 15-19 the Sr. High Fellowship will have an extraordinary opportunity to participate in mission with the Bethel Presbyterian Church in Philadelphia. You may register this morning at the table outside the Celebration Center.

Minister: God keeps his promises and gives us hope.
People: In the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus,
God kept his promises.
Minister: All that we can ever hope for was present in Christ.
People: But the work of God in Christ is not over.
Minister: God calls us to hope for more than we have yet seen.
People: The hope God gives us is ultimate confidence that supports us when lesser hopes fail us.
Minister: In Christ God gives hope for a new heaven and earth,
People: Certainty of victory over death,
Minister: Assurance of mercy and judgment beyond death.
People: This hope gives us courage for the present struggle.

THE REV. DR. SILAS NCOZANA, a Presbyterian pastor from Malawi in Central Africa, will be visiting in the Presbytery of Genesee Valley this coming week. Having completed his doctorate at Princeton Theological Seminary, Dr. Ncozana has served in a parish situation as well as engaging in Youth ministries for the Presbytery of Malawi. He is currently President of the Council of Churches of Central Africa. His special interest is "African Spirituality and Christian Faith".

Third Church members and friends are cordially invited to meet and talk with Dr. Ncozana at two events this week:

Monday, February 11, 7:30 p.m. at The Gift Center on Joseph Avenue, for dessert

Thursday, February 14, 7:00 to 8:00 a.m. in the Third Church Parlor with Breakfast Fellowship

Here is a chance to learn about our wider Church, to grow in faith, and to enjoy fellowship; come join us!

"CARE WHEN THERE IS NO CURE" This class will begin next Sunday at 9:30 a.m. with Mr. Young leading and continue on February 24 and March 3. The hospice program, developed in Britain, offers medical, social and religious support so that the quality of life may be maintained for those who are incurably ill. Mr. Young has recently participated in a hospice seminar and will lead us in thinking about the theological and medical understandings of the last stages of life and will inform us about hospice-type resources that are available locally.

"PRAY ALL WAYS" Dinner tickets for the introductory session of this Lenten series will be on sale outside Johnston Hall after Church. You may also call the Office during the week to reserve tickets -- $3.75 each. The class on February 24 will begin at 4:00 p.m., include dinner, and end at 9:00 p.m. Thereafter, the class will be held every Sunday evening in Lent beginning at 7:30 p.m. It will include discussions of the meaning of prayer and ways our personality types effect the way we pray.

We recognize One God at work across the ages:
creating, restoring, sustaining all that is;
Who led Moses and Miriam to bring slaves to freedom;
Who unveiled saving truth through Elijah and Elisha;
Who inspired Rachel, Rebecca, and Rahab;
Who appeared to James and John, to Mary and Martha,
to Peter and Paul;
Whose face is revealed in Jesus Christ.

We declare that God's presence and power come near to us in these days:
Whenever God's Word is spoken and heard;
Wherever people are being transformed into God's image.

O God, You are the First and the Last, and the Everliving One;
You have become our Strength and our Song.

The People Singing

Glad of heart your carols raise;
Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,
Who, like me, should sing God's praise?

Alleluia! Alleluia! Praise the Maker all your days!

Praise God for the grace and favor
Shown our forebears in distress;
God is still the same forever,
Slow to chide, and swift to bless.

Alleluia! Alleluia! Sing our Maker's faithfulness!

Like a loving parent caring,
God knows well our feeble frame;
Gladly all our burdens bearing,
Still to countless years the same.

Alleluia! Alleluia! All within me, praise God's name!

Angels teach us adoration,
You behold God face to face;
Sun and moon and all creation,
Dwellers all in time and space,

Alleluia! Alleluia! Praise with us the God of grace!

GREETING

Patricia K. Youngdahl

Leader: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.
People: And also with you.

Leader: Bless the Lord, O my soul,
and all that is within me, bless God's holy name.

People: Bless the Lord, O my soul,
and forget not all God's benefits.

Leader: Who forgives all your sins and heals all your infirmities;
People: Who redeems your life from the grave,
and crowns you with mercy and loving-kindness.

OPENING PRAYER

Most Holy God, Christ came to save sinners;
We come to this season of repentance,
confessing our brokenness,
asking for new and honest hearts,
and the healing power of your forgiveness.
Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

O God of mercy: you sent Jesus Christ to save the lost. Judge us with love, and lift the burden of our sins. We confess that we are twisted by pride. We see ourselves pure when we are stained, and great when we are small. We have failed in love, forgotten to be just, and have turned away from your truth. Have mercy, O God, and forgive our sin, for the sake of Jesus your Son, our Savior. Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

O God, as we look, in this season of Lent, to see Jesus afresh, and as we seek to hear him anew, we become aware of how far ahead of us he is. We confess that sometimes we despair of ever becoming anything like Christ. Help us to trust your mercy to be stronger than any failure of ours, and encourage us so that we will keep on trying to follow Christ's way, learn his truth, and experience the richness of his life. We ask these and all things in the power of Jesus' name. Amen.

#ANTHEM The Pharisee and the Publican Schuetz
Jesus said unto them: Two men went to the temple to pray: the one was a Pharisee, the other a Publican. The Pharisee stood there and prayed within himself, and the Publican stood afar off, would not lift so much as his eyes to heaven, but smote upon his breast and they said: I thank thee, Lord God, that I am not as other men are, unjust, extortioners, nor even as this Publican. Lord, I am sinful, be Thou merciful to me! I fast always twice in the week, and give the tenth of all that I possess. I say to you, this man went from thence justified rather than the other. +AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

We believe Jesus Christ demands of us lives that recognize all people in all cultures as our neighbors on this planet.

Christ teaches us to go beyond legal requirements in serving and helping our neighbor, to treat our neighbor's needs as our own,
to care passionately for the other's good,
to share what we have.

It is part of our discipline to live in simplicity, avoiding greed and luxury that threaten our neighbor's survival.

We are obligated to speak the truth in love,
to listen with patience and openness,
to love our enemies,
to accept the risk and pain which love involves.

The People Singing

Lead on, O King Eternal, we follow not with fears;
For gladness breaks like morning
Where'er your face appears.
Your cross is lifted o'er us
We journey in its light.
The crown awaits the conquest, Lead on O God of might.

CHURCH SCHOOL REGISTRATION will begin next Sunday, March 24 and continue on March 31 before and after worship outside Johnston Hall and in the Education Building for children (infants through Grade 8). Registration is important if you plan to have your children attend our 1985-'86 Church School classes. The number and size of classes and amount of curriculum we order depends on the information we receive at our March 24 and March 31 registration dates. Many thanks!

LEARN ABOUT SOUTH AFRICA from The Rev. Joseph Prakasim, a minister of the Presbyterian Church in South Africa. Mr. Prakasim is currently a graduate student at Princeton Theological Seminary. He will speak on "Social Justice in South Africa" following a pot luck supper on Thursday evening, March 28th. You may attend at 7:30 for the program, or bring a dish to pass at 6:30 and enjoy fellowship and supper. If you would like to have Child Care during the program, please sign up at the table outside Johnston Hall this morning or call the office during the week.

THE RHINELAND MYSTICS, a new Sunday morning Adult Education opportunity, begins next Sunday at 9:30 a.m. Led by Wayne McKusick, this discussion will focus on the inspired words of Hildegard Von Bingen and Meister Eckhart.

THE PRESBYTERY OF GENESEE VALLEY will hold a Moderator's Reception this afternoon at 4:00 p.m. at Gates Presbyterian Church. The celebration will recognize the completion of Perry Fuller's moderatorial year and the beginning of Robert Kaiser's year. The reception will begin with a brief service of prayer and praise with massed choirs. Everyone is invited.

REQUIEM

by Gabriel Faure - Op. 48

This Lenten Music Worship is given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Mrs. Phillips Clark (Margaret Brinkerhoff)

Grant Them Rest Eternal

Grant them rest eternal, O Lord, and let light perpetual shine upon them. Hymns shall become thee, O God in Zion, and to thee shall new vows be paid in Jerusalem. Hear thou my prayer, O Lord God; unto thee shall all flesh come. Lord, have mercy upon us. Christ, have mercy upon us. Grant us thy peace.

Offertory

O Lord our God Jesus Christ, thou all-glorious King, deliver thou the souls of thy servants from earthly bondage, and from the death of this mortal flesh; from death's dark valley, and from the shadows of the deep abyss. O Lord, our God, be thou merciful; save thou them from lasting darkness. Unto thee we offer, Lord, this sacrifice, unto thee this prayer and praise; do thou receive it for those beloved and honored whom we bless this day, whose memory we recall; Lord, let them pass from the death of the body to life eternal, as of old thou didst promise unto Abraham and his seed. Amen.

Holy, Holy, Holy

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of hosts. Heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Glory be to thee, O Lord, Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed Jesus

Blessed Jesus, Lord and God, grant them thine eternal rest. Gentle Shepherd, lead them now through this darkness to thy Day; to thy life that knows no death, to thy time that knows no end, to that home that ends the way. Blessed Jesus, Lord and God, grant them thine eternal rest.

Lamb of God

Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, grant them eternal rest. Let light eternal shine upon them forever with thy blessed servants, for that thou art gracious, Lord, for that thou art good. Rest eternal grant them; let light perpetual shine upon them.

Deliver Me

Deliver me, Lord, from death eternal upon that day of terror, upon that day of trial; then shall heaven and earth be moved, be consumed together, for thou shalt come upon the earth in judgment. Trembling, I stand before thee and wait in fear till judgment shall come upon the earth and all shall know thine anger. Day of wrath and doom impending! Death then is struck and all creation wakes. Day of wrath and day of sorrow! Great the waking, exceeding bitter. Rest eternal grant them, Lord; let light perpetual shine upon them. Deliver me, O Lord, deliver me.

In Paradise

In paradise be thou received of angel hosts, thy coming attended by all the blessed martyr throng, thy pathway guided into the holy city, Jerusalem. May the chorus of angels there receive thee; and with Lazarus, blessed of Abraham, Lazarus, once a beggar, now comforted of Abraham, be thine eternal rest.

The conductor this morning is Theodore Hollenbach, Organist and Choir Director of Third Presbyterian Church. The organist is Larry Stratemeyer, Assistant Organist at Third Church. The soprano soloist is Patricia Green and the baritone soloist is James Demler. Members of the orchestra are from the Eastman School of Music. This presentation is being sung in Latin by the members of the Chancel Choir of Third Presbyterian Church.

All creatures of our God and King,
Lift up your voice and with us sing
Alleluia, alleluia!

Thou burning sun with golden beam,
Thou silver moon with softer gleam;

O praise him, O praise him,
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!*

Dear mother earth, who day by day
Unfoldest blessings on our way,
O praise him, alleluia!
The flowers and fruits that in thee grow,
Let them his glory also show: *

And all ye ones of tender heart,
Forgiving others, take your part,
O sing ye, alleluia!
Ye who long pain and sorrow bear,
Praise God and on him cast your care: *

And thou, most kind and gentle death,
Waiting to hush our latest breath,
O praise him, alleluia!
Thou leadest home the child of God,
And Christ our Lord the way hath trod: *

Let all things their Creator bless,
And worship him in humbleness,
O praise him, alleluia!
Praise, praise the Father, praise the Son,
And praise the Spirit, three in One: *

 Follow to the judgment-hall, view the Lord of life arraigned;
 Oh the wormwood and the gall! Oh the pangs his soul sustained!
 Shun not suffering, shame, or loss,
 Learn of him to bear the cross.

CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Today, O God, we remember how Jesus came into the city and wept over it because the things that make for peace were unknown there. We confess that they are largely unknown here, too. We want peace, but we also want to keep all our power and all our privileges. We pray for peace, but we do not work much for it. We want Christ's gift of peace, but we are not anxious for him to challenge us, much less to change us.

Keep coming to our world, O God. Do not cease knocking at the door of our hearts. And one day we will learn to beat our swords into plowshares and our spears into pruning hooks. One day nation will no longer lift up sword against nation, neither will we learn war anymore. Amen.

ANTHEM

My King Rode In

Weaver

My King rode in through the city gates, while palms and garlands bestrew the way. And children sang with their voices sweet, "Hosanna! Sing, the King is come today!" And did they give him a golden crown to wear? I tell you nay! These folk were blind, they gave him stripes and a broken heart, the King and Savior of mankind. My King Rode in through the city gates, the city dark where I dwell alone. And my sad lips smiled, and my heart was glad, for the light of his love about me shone! Hosanna! Sing, the King is come today! And will you give him a crown of thorns to wear, this King and savior of mankind. My King rode in through the city gates, the crowded city where all men dwell, and some received him with joy and tears, and some refused him his kingdom still! Yea, heart, on some fair day, low at his feet shall they lay their lives, and he shall rule in their hearts forevermore! Hosanna forevermore!

SCRIPTURE SENTENCES

William W. Young

Leader: God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, that whosoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life.
People: Christ also died for sin once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God.
Leader: God did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all.
People: Greater love has no one than this, that a person lay down his life for his friends.

PRAYER

Lord Jesus, like your disciples, we have been loud in our protestations of loyalty to you, and yet we have turned out to be disloyal. You trod the way of love without flinching: we hesitate to tread it at all. We have been afraid of the pain and suffering which love brings. Give us courage to stand by you in your hour of grief, and not to run away. Keep us loyal and devoted to the end, always open to your Father's will and to the needs of our brothers and sisters, for your sake. Amen.

You were born and now have fulfillment! You have not lived in vain or suffered! All that comes to be, that too will soon pass! Yet it heralds life renewing! Now cease to tremble! Prepare yourself for living! Sorrow all pervading, now I have escaped you! O Death thou all pervading, now you have been conquered. With wings of love to Thee I'm soaring, to light which mankind has not seen! Death will come before I live again! Rise, arise at once, my heart, you will arise! MERTON - A FILM BIOGRAPHY

Thomas Merton, a Trappist monk, writer, poet, and peace activist, worked to bridge the political, social, and religious gaps which separate the people of the world. This documentary traces Merton's life from birth to death through the eyes of the people closest to him. Join others next Sunday, April 14 at 9:15 a.m. to see this video-tape.

NEXT SUNDAY, April 14, Pamela G. Harvey will preach in Chapel and Church. Her sermon, "The Power and the Glory" will be based on I Corinthians 15:14: "If Christ was not raised than our gospel is null and void and so is your faith."

A WORKSHOP FOR GOD'S WORD will be held on April 18 at 7:30 p.m. in Johnston Hall. Led by one of our own Third Church pastors, the text for the evening will be Matthew 15:21-28.

ON APRIL 19 and 20 in Xerox Auditorium, Rochester audiences will be privileged to see a production of Peace Child by David Woolcombe, a musical fantasy about a world without war and how that came to be. Eunice Jelsma will have tickets for sale this morning outside of Coffee Hour.

Leader: With the stone rolled away came emptiness People: Of a tomb that held captive the Crucified, of the space that was once filled with death,
of the cross that now pointed to greater truth of God's love in spite of ourselves.
Leader: With the stone rolled away came questions
People: From those whose world lay shattered, from those who would demand living proof,
from those who were seeking a sign of promise breeding confidence, assurance, and trust.
Leader: With the stone rolled away came light
People: To illumine the darkness of suspicion and fear, to dispel the shadows of distrust, anxiety, insecurity,
to radiate with the beams of new hope and understanding
the life about to be lived.
Leader: With the stone rolled away comes a future
People: With a truth that outshines the wisdom of ages, with space to be filled with the Kingdom of God,
with the company of those who through history confess
Jesus Christ is risen today. Alleluia! Amen.

The heavens and the earth proclaim His power and His might
'Tis heard in the crash of the storm,
In the wild torrent's loud impetuous roar.
His command the trees put forth their opening leaves,
And valleys wave bright with golden corn;
With lovely flowers the fields are decked,
And stars in splendour fill the vault of heaven.
Heard with dread in the thunder's deep blast,
And seen in flames of lightning.
But chief in His great loving kindness shines forth

Hymn to Joy

Words by Frank von Christiersen

Christ is Risen! Raise your voices
Jubilant with joy and praise;
Christ is risen! Earth rejoices.
To the Lord your anthems raise.
Over death and sin victorious,
Christ is risen! Hail your King.
Ever may his praise be glorious.
Let the world his triumph sing.

Lord of life, our Savior risen,
Bid the shadows flee away,
Death no more a darkened prison.
Death, the door to life's New Day.
This the resurrection chorus
Lift its music on the air.
Jesus lives! Our Lord victorious
Tell it, tell it everywhere.

Life eternal! Joy of Heaven
Life abundant! Joy of earth:
Life which God in Christ has given Brings to all new hope, new worth.
Lift your hearts from sin and sadness,
Trust this joyful sacred Word,
Fill the earth with holy gladness.

#OFFERTORY (When instructed, the congregation will rise and sing:)

The church's one foundation
Is Jesus Christ her Lord;
She is His new creation
By water and the word;
From heav'n He came and sought her
To be His holy bride;
With His own blood He bought her,
And for her life He died.

Church Calendar 1985

Yet she on earth hath union
With Father, Spirit, Son,
And mystic sweet communion
With those whose rest is won:
O happy ones and holy!
Lord, give us grace that we,
Like them, the meek and lowly,
On high may dwell with Three. Amen.

CALL TO CONFESSION William W. Young
PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Great God: by your power has Christ been made Lord of all and head of the Church, his body. We confess that we have not always bowed before him, or acknowledged his rule in our lives. We have gone along with the ways of the world and have been careless of brothers and sisters. We have been slow to trust our own lives, to say nothing of the life of the world, into your care. Forgive us, O God; lift us out of sin; and help us to enlarge those areas of our lives where Christ is truly Lord for us. We pray these and all things in his name. Amen.

NEXT SUNDAY, May 26th all Senior Highs are invited to the home of Pamela Harvey from 6:00 to 9:00 p.m. for a Memorial Day Picnic and "Photo-Hunt". Bring meat to barbeque, and a frisbee if you have one.

MEMORIAL DAY PARADE this year, for the first time, will include peacemaking groups. The Action for Peace Committee and the Couples Fellowship invite any Third Churchers marching to share a light breakfast in the Celebration Center on May 27th from 9:00 to 9:30 a.m. On Sunday, May 26th you may join others at 9:30 a.m. for a time of preparation and reflection about the parade.

AN ECUMENICAL CELEBRATION will be held on Thursday, May 30th at 7:30 p.m. at Guardian Angels Roman Catholic Church, 2059 East Henrietta Road. This local observance of the national call for a Peace Pentecost will incorporate in the liturgy workshops on local and international human rights concerns.

ALL 7TH GRADERS are invited to three special get-acquainted sessions on Wednesdays, May 22, 29, and June 5 at 7:30 p.m. These three meetings will give you an opportunity to see how a bell choir works and to ask questions about this unusual activity. For further information, see Helen Moot.

DR. ROBERT BOWMAN, Lt. Col. (ret.) U.S. Air Force, will speak at 7:30 p.m. on May 22 at R.I.T. in Room A-100 at the College of Liberal Arts. Dr. Bowman culminated his 22 year Air Force career as Director of Advanced Space Programs Development where he directed half a billion dollars worth of space programs including what is now known as the "Star Wars" program.

BREAKFAST WITH BRUCE RIGDON Join others on Friday morning, May 24 from 7:45 to 8:45 a.m. in Johnston Hall. Dr. Rigdon is Professor of Church History at McCormick Theological Seminary and is widely-recognized as an authority on religion in the Soviet Union. He is Chair of The National Council of Churches Committee on Relations with Churches in the Soviet Union. He will discuss his ideas about what American Christians might do to improve relations between the United States and the Soviet Union. Reservations requested. Call the Church Office.

#Patricia K. Youngdahl

Almighty God, who sent the promised power of the Holy Spirit to fill disciples with willing faith: we confess that we have held back the force of your Spirit among us; that we still cling to old ways. In spite of your promises, we seek self assurance. You sent the Holy Spirit to enliven our existence, but the darkness of doubt dispells the new light the Spirit brings. Have mercy upon us. Fill us anew with your Spirit that we may be a faithful people; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

God made us for life in community and with freedom to enter into it.
So we live with our Maker in gratitude and respond to each other with love.
Since every human being is made for communion with God and others, we treat no one with contempt.
In the name of Jesus Christ,
we seek the well-being of all people.

The People Singing

Blest be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love;
The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above.

We share our mutual woes,
Our mutual burdens bear,
And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear.

From sorrow, toil, and pain,
And sin, we shall be free;
And perfect love and friendship reign
Through all eternity.

CALL TO CONFESSION

Pamela G. Harvey

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Creator God, we confess that too often we fall short of what you want us to be.

We would touch the world with goodness,
but often we withdraw in fear.

We would live with integrity and stand for truth,
but we are torn with uncertainties.

We would commit ourselves to others in love, but we hesitate, wondering if they will love us in return.

We need your presence, O God,
if we are to be what we could and want to be.

Let our worship heal us, strengthen us,
and give us courage,
that we may go out in confidence and peace. Amen.

+AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

In the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus, God kept his promises. All that we can ever hope for was present in Christ.

But the work of God in Christ is not over. God calls us to hope for more than we have yet seen.

The hope God gives us is ultimate confidence that supports us when lesser hopes fail us.

In Christ, God gives hope for a new heaven and earth, certainty of victory over death, assurance of mercy and judgment beyond death.

This hope gives us courage for the present struggle.

+AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

In God's history with God's people in the world, God has often made material things channels through which his grace is understood and powerfully experienced.

Out of the life and ministry of Jesus, the church received baptism and the Lord's supper as special sacraments of God's saving action.

We believe that at the Lord's supper the community of believers is renewed by the memory of Christ's life and death, by his real presence in the power of the Holy Spirit and by the promise of his coming again.

Christ makes himself known to us in the breaking of bread.

He offers us his body broken for our sake and his blood shed for the forgiveness of our sins.

We accept his promises and gifts and depend on his life to sustain ours.

In turn we offer ourselves in thanksgiving to the risen Lord who has conquered death.

So we celebrate his victory here and now and anticipate the joyous feast in his coming kingdom

Reunited around one loaf and cup, we receive strength and courage to continue our pilgrimage with God in the world.

of the faith,")

CALL TO CONFESSION Pamela Fulton
PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Lord, we say with our lips, "In you we trust," but our deeds reveal that it is our bombs and missiles, the works of our own hands, that we look to for our salvation. So we pray: Lord, have mercy.

Christ, we call ourselves "Christians" and profess to be your followers, yet we consistently choose the sword you told us to put away and reject the cross you embraced. So we pray: Christ, have mercy.

Lord, we claim to be a peace-loving people, yet we really think like this: if we can make it, they can make it, so we better make it first. So we build three new nuclear weapons a day, and now our leaders openly speak about first-strike policy. We pray:
Lord, have mercy.

Lord God, have mercy upon us, forgive us our sins,
and bring us onto the path of life. Amen.

+AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

The people of God have often misused God's promises as excuses for doing nothing about present evils.
But in Christ the new world has already broken in and the old can no longer be tolerated.
We know our efforts cannot bring in God's kingdom.
But hope plunges us into the struggle for victories over evil that are possible now in the world, the church, and our individual lives.
Hope gives us courage and energy to contend against all opposition, however invincible it may seem,
for the new world and the new humanity that are surely coming.
Jesus is Lord!
He has been Lord from the beginning.
He will be Lord at the end.
Even now he is Lord.

"The Love of God"

The love of God is broad like beach and meadow
We long for free--dom where our tru-est be-ing
But there are walls that keep us all di-vid-ed;
O, judge us, Lord, and in your judg-ment free us,

Wide as the wind, and our e-ter-nal home.
Is giv-en hope and cour-age to un-fold.
We fence each oth--er in with hate and war.
And set our feet in free-dom's op-en space;

God leave us free for seek-ing or re-ject-ing.
We seek in free--- dom space and scope for dream-ing;
Fear is the bricks- and-mor-tar of our pris-on,
Take us as far as your com-pass-ion wan-ders

God gives us room to an-swer yes or no
And look for ground where trees and plants may grow.
Our pride of self the pris-on coat we wear,

PRELUDE Partita: In God, My Faithful God J. S. Bach
BWV 767

CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader: Have you not known? Have you not heard?

People: *The Lord is the everlasting God,
the Creator of the ends of the earth.*

Leader: They who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength:

People: *They shall mount up with wings like eagles:
they shall run and not be weary,
they shall walk and not faint.*

+OPENING HYMN 415 Heaven and Earth, Gott Sei Dank and Sea and Air

PRAYER OF APPROACH

Our souls thirst for you, O God; our flesh faints for you, as in a dry and weary land where no water is.
Come to us, Lord, and meet us in our yearning. When we come to the limits of our wisdom, free us to bow down and worship. As we reach the end of our power to heal, teach us how to pray. When we tire in our efforts toward justice, help us to trust in your Spirit at work in hidden ways. Stay with us, O Christ, and lead us on from step to step, to the peace of the Everlasting City. Amen.

To the world in its distress and division

God promises blessing and restoration.

The Lord chose Abraham, Sarah, and their descendants as bearers of this promise for all peoples.

We declare God's steadfast care and sovereign power.
In Christ, God's saving love is fully revealed.
By the work of the Spirit we are set free to live in joy, compassion, and peace.

+HYMN OF AFFIRMATION Be Still, My Soul Finlandia

Be still, my soul: the Lord is on thy side;
Bear patiently the cross of grief or pain;
Leave to thy God to order and provide;
In every change He faithful will remain.
Be still, my soul: thy best, thy heavenly Friend
Through thorny ways leads to a joyful end.

Be still, my soul: thy God doth undertake
To guide the future as He has the past.
Thy hope, thy confidence let nothing shake;
All now mysterious shall be bright at last.
Be still, my soul: the waves and winds still know
His voice who ruled them while He dwelt below.

Be still, my soul: the hour is hastening on
When we shall be forever with the Lord,
When disappointment, grief, and fear are gone,
Sorrow forgot, love's purest joys restored.
Be still, my soul: when change and tears are past,
All safe and blessed we shall meet at last. Amen.

CALL TO WORSHIP

CALL TO CONFESSION (9:30) William W. Young
PRAYER OF CONFESSION #Patricia K. Youngdahl

We come before you, O God, seeking the forgiveness of of our sins and the renewal of our lives.

We confess that, while we have called you Lord, we have too often gone along with the ways of the world.
We have complained about, but rarely challenged, injustice. We have listened only grudgingly to those who have grievances against us. We have been dismayed at the outbreak of violence and war, but we have done all too little to promote reconciliation and peace.
We have been content to seek our private welfare, and we have not concerned ourselves much with the public good.

Let our thoughts be more like your thoughts, O God, and our ways more like your ways, not for our sakes only, but also for the sake of the world that Christ came to save. We pray in his name. Amen.

RECOGNITION OF TEACHERS AND ADVISORS Patricia K. Youngdahl
Words of Dedication (Teachers and Advisors)
What we have heard and known for ourselves and what our ancestors have told us must not be withheld from their descendants, but be handed on by us to the next generation; these in their turn will tell their own children so that they too put confidence in God, never forgetting God's achievements, and always keeping God's commandments.

Prayer (in unison)

God of our ancestors: in every age you have appointed teachers and counselors to tell your power, justice, and love. We thank you for brothers and sisters in faith, who will teach and show your ways. Give them Holy Spirit so that they may know your Son our Lord, speak his truth, and with us live the new life,
serving neighbors, and walking in your grace;
through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

+AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

We believe that God created and is still creating and that we are called to join in this creation.
We believe that God does not love us because Christ died
for us, but that Christ died for us because God loved us.
We believe that God's Holy Spirit of love still sets people free and that God calls us to help in this task of liberation.
We believe that the church is a chosen people,
not chosen for its own sake,
but to be a servant of God for the sake of the world.
We believe that God's love is unfailing,
and so we approach the future with confidence.

The People Singing

Arise, O Saints of God!
Have done with lesser things;
Give heart and soul and mind and strength
To serve the cause of God.

Arise, your light has come!
The Spirit's call obey;
Show forth the glory of your God
Which shines on you today.

THE LAY SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY AND MINISTRY provides an opportunity this year to focus on three major areas: Scripture, Spirituality, and Contemporary Issues. A listing of all the courses offered is available on a brochure in the Church Office.

Patricia K. Youngdahl, Associate Pastor of Third Church, will be teaching the course entitled A Guide To The Bible on Tuesday mornings from 9:00 to 11:00 here at Third Church on October 15 through November 12. This basic survey course will explore the Bible in its structure and meaning. It will invite you to take a journey, providing both a broad perspective of times and places and an in-depth focus on some key events. The fee is $25.00 per person if you register before September 30th. (If two people from the same family choose to attend together, the cost is $20.00 per person). Babysitting is provided. The Registration Form is available on the brochure in the office.

CENTRAL AMERICA TASK FORCE presents another interesting and information program in the School for Christian Living series next Sunday, September 29th. S. Douglas Brian, Program Agency Staff, Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), will report on the General Assembly's stance on Central American issues. Mr. Brian has been one of those involved in preparing recommendations regarding Central America to the General Assembly for its consideration. Join others in Johnston Hall at 9:30 a.m. next Sunday.

MEDICAL SUPPLIES and personal hygiene items are needed in Central America. These can be taken there when the Rochester Area Witness for Peace group visits Nicaragua October 7 through October 19. These supplies will be used by Central American Church groups. Lists of recommended items can be picked up after worship today in the Church Office. The need is great! There is no danger of too much being collected. Money gifts are also welcome. Please bring items to the Church Office on or before October 3rd.

NEW MEMBER INVITATION

The next series of new member orientations will begin on Wednesday evening, October 30 and continue the next Wednesday evening. The group will meet with the Session on Tuesday, November 12 at 7:30 p.m., and be received publicly in 10:30 worship on Sunday, November 17. Anyone interested in becoming a member of Third Church is invited to attend.

THE FLOWERS THIS MORNING are given to the Glory of God and in loving memory of Jean MacMillan Titus.

SERMONS PREACHED recently in Third Church are available in the Narthex. You are invited to help yourself.

THE COMMUNION BREADS this morning were baked by members of Third Church and the women of the Korean Presbyterian Church. They represent several different countrys. Carolyn Mosher made Pita Bread, from the Middle East. Jo Whang made whole wheat bread from the United States, Paul Caravetta made Scotch Short Bread, and Carol Meyers made Irish Soda Bread, and Black Bread from Russia.

THE OFFERING FOR PEACEMAKING is being received this morning. Our gifts will be divided in this way: 25% will stay here in Third Church, 25% will go to our Presbytery of Genesee Valley, and 50% goes to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). In this way the peacemaking effort is advanced within our own congregation as well as around the world. Please give generously.

NEXT SUNDAY, Dr. Bay will preach in Chapel and Church.

THE SCHOOL FOR CHRISTIAN LIVING on Sunday, October 13 at 9:30 a.m. will hold a class entitled "How Beautiful Upon the Mountain: Peacemaking and Evangelism in the Congregation". The topic will be "Ambassadors for Christ", based on II Corinthians 5:18-20. David O'Brien will lead the discussion.

THE FLOWERS THIS MORNING are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Jean MacMillan Titus.

ALL WORSHIPERS ARE INVITED to attend Coffee Hour this morning following worship. Join others in Johnston Hall for a time of fellowship.

NEXT SUNDAY, Dr. Bay will preach in Chapel and Church.

Announcements

THE OFFERING FOR PEACEMAKING is being received this morning. Our gifts will be divided in this way: 25% will stay here in Third Church, 25% will go to our Presbytery of Genesee Valley, and 50% goes to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). In this way the peacemaking effort is advanced within our own congregation as well as around the world. Please give generously.

THE COMMUNION BREADS this morning were baked by members of Third Church and the women of the Korean Presbyterian Church. They represent several different countries. Carolyn Mosher made Pita bread from the Middle East. Jo Whang made whole wheat bread representative of the United States. Paul Caravetta made Scotch Short Bread. Carol Meyers made Irish Soda Bread and Russian black bread.

THE SCHOOL FOR CHRISTIAN LIVING on October 20th (two weeks from today) will present a speaker from the United States State Department, James S. Landberg. Mr. Landberg has been Deputy Director of the Office of Mexican Affairs since 1983. He is being brought to Third Church by our Central America Task Force to speak about the position of the State Department in that part of the world. He will begin promptly at 9:30 a.m. in Johnston Hall. Following the 10:30 service of worship he will be available in the Parlor to answer questions.

CALL TO WORSHIP

(9:30) Pamela G. Harvey
#William W. Young
You are always near to us, O God, but especially so when we turn to you in praise and prayer. Open our eyes that we may see you, and our ears that we may hear you, and our hearts that they may be responsive to your touch. Let your grace and power flow into our lives here today: to quiet our fears and forgive our sin, to enliven our faith and kindle our love, to support us in our grief and sustain us in every time of need.
Then, send us from this place to share with others what we ourselves have received; through Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior. Amen.

ANTHEM

O Lord, Support Us Richard Gore
O Lord, support us all the day long of this troublous life, until the shadows lengthen and the evening comes, and the busy world is hushed, the fever of life is over and our work is done. Then Lord in thy mercy, grant us safe lodging, a holy rest, and peace at the sighing...." Psalm 31:9-10 (in part)

+#AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

In Christ God gave us a glimpse of the new creation
he has already begun and will surely finish.
In our time we see only broken and scattered signs that the renewal of all things is under way.
We do not yet see the end of cruelty and suffering in the world, the Church, or our own lives.
But we see Jesus as Lord.
As he stands at the center of our history,
we are confident he will stand at its end.
There will be no more tears or pain.
All things will be made new.
The fellowship of human beings with God and each other will be perfected.

The People Singing

Author of the new creation,
Come with blessing and with power.
Make our hearts your habitation;
On our souls your graces shower.
Hear, O hear our supplication, Blessed Spirit, God of peace!
Rest upon this congregation,
With the fullness of your grace.

I Will Comfort You
(from "Requiem")

Johannes Brahms

Ye now are sorrowful, howbeit ye shall again behold me, and your heart shall be joyful, and your joy no one taketh from you. Yea, I will comfort you, as one whom his own mother comforteth. Look upon me; ye know that for a little time labor and sorrow were mine, but at the last I have found comfort.

LITANY OF FAITH AND COURAGE

Leader: O God of Abraham and Sarah, you have led your people in the past; lead us now.
People: Grant us the courage of Ruth to leave behind the old and familiar, the hope of Jeremiah to trust in the future, and the unselfishness of Esther to take risks on behalf of others.
Leader: O God of Moses and Miriam, you delivered your people and led them through the wilderness, giving them food, protection, and guidance.
People: In the words of Miriam, we praise you: "I will sing to Yahweh, who has triumphed gloriously!" Leader: O God of Deborah and Gideon, you have given us leaders to bring us back when we wander from you,
and deliverers to lead us against oppression.
People: Give us leaders and deliverers, and grant us
the wisdom to follow them.
Leader: From the words of your prophets we have learned justice and mercy.
People: Help us to say, with Isaiah, "Here am I. Send me."
Leader: O God of James and John and Mary Magdalene, you have called us to follow Jesus.
People: Teach us how to work together in mutual responsibility, side-by-side, neither tagging behind nor shoving to the front.
Leader: O God of Paul and Priscilla and Aquila, who risked their lives for the sake of spreading your church, fill us with enthusiasm for your church.
People: Use us in the spreading of the church, in the building up of its parts, in the joining together of its various congregations, and in ministry to the whole world.

PRAYER OF APPROACH Pamela G. Harvey
O High and Holy One: as we bow before you in reverence and humility, lift us up into your presence and call our hearts and minds into communion with your Spirit.
Strengthen us: show us the path that is ours to walk, and work that is ours to do. Forgive us: let not memories of past failures paralyze us in the present moment. Teach us: lest we think we can have the consolations of faith without its commitments.
Hover over us: give us such assurances of your love that in all times and in all circumstances we may know that you are God. All of which we pray through

+#AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

We believe that God created and is still creating
and that we are called to join in this creation.
We believe that God does not love us because Christ died
for us, but that Christ died for us because God loved us.
We believe that God's Holy Spirit of love still sets people free and that God calls us to help in this task of liberation.
We believe that the church is a chosen people,
not chosen for its own sake,
but to be a servant of God for the sake of the world.
We believe that God's love is unfailing,
and so we approach the future with confidence.

The People Singing
Lead on, O King eternal,
Till sin's fierce war shall cease,
And Holiness shall whisper
The sweet Amen of peace;
For not with swords' loud clashing,
Nor roll of stirring drums,
But deeds of love and mercy,
The heavenly kingdom comes.

Lead on, O King eternal:
We follow, not with fears;
For gladness breaks like morning
Where'er your face appears;

PRAYER OF APPROACH

#Pamela Fulton

O Lord, we open our hearts, minds, and wills to you.

We come to this place of worship so that our witness beyond these walls might be faithful and true. Here, we seek companionship with you so that, in all times and places, we may have a sense of your presence. We come apart to rest on this first day of the week so that, in all the other days, we may not grow weary in well-doing.

While we are here and together, O God, help us to claim our calling as agents of reconciliation, ambassadors of hope, and instruments of peace. Then, send us forth to the world that so desperately needs your love and justice; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

#AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

In forming his people and sending them into the world
Jesus called individuals to be disciples.

They were to share the joy of his companionship, to understand and obey his teachings,
and to follow him in life and death.

We confess that Christians today are called to discipleship.
Life shared with Christ and shaped by Christ is God's undeserved gift to each of us.

It is also God's demand upon every one of us, never perfectly fulfilled by any of us.

Forgiven by God and supported by brothers and sisters, we strive to become more faithful and effective in our daily practice of the Christian life.

The People Singing

O Prince of Peace, the bringer of good tidings, Teach us to speak your word of hope and cheer -- Rest for the soul, and strength for all our striving,
Light for the path of life, and God brought near.

Lord God, whose grace has called us to your service,
How good your thoughts toward us, how great their sum!
We work with you, we go where you will lead us,
Until in all the earth your kingdom come.

PRAYER OF DEDICATION

O Lord, you call us to be stewards of your mysteries and servants of Christ. We hold in our hands our commitment to you. It is more than a card saying what we intend to give. It is our covenant-keeping; it is our discipleship. It is our prayer we hold in our hands. We give to you now our offering for today and our pledges for the year to come. May they be used for worthy purposes and in faithful ministry. Bless these hands that hold these gifts. Bless these stewards that bow before you. Bless this Church which offers to you its life and work; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

#OFFERTORY

Greater Love Hath No Man John Ireland

Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it. Love is strong as death. Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness. Ye are washed, ye are sanctified, ye are justified, in the name of the Lord Jesus; ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, that ye should show forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvelous light. I beseech you, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies, a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

ASSISTING IN THE LEADERSHIP of worship at the 10:30 hour today is Pamela Fulton, a student at Colgate Rochester Divinity School and a candidate for the Professional Ministry from this congregation.

SPEAKING DURING CONCERNS OF THE CHURCH this morning is Elder John Morton, a member of the Central America Task Force (10:30 only).

LEADING THE PRAYER OF DEDICATION in both services, and giving the Children's Sermon at the 10:30 hour is Jack Kraushaar, a member of the 1986 Stewardship Cabinet.

CHURCH SCHOOL OPEN HOUSE will be held today in the Education Building, following 10:30 worship. All members of the congregation are invited to attend.

A PROGRAM ON ART AS THEOLOGY begins this evening from 7:30 to 8:30 in Johnston Hall led by Frank Fowler. Tonight's class is entitled "Through the Eyes of Christ: The Holy Land as He Saw It." Especially notable, well-preserved places important in the life of Christ are revisited including the Mt. of Olives, the Garden of Gethsemane, Capernaum, the Sea of Galilee and adjacent areas. Examination of a precise scale model reconstruction of the city of Jerusalem as it was in His lifetime enables us to picture this citadel of Roman and Judaic power as it existed during the time that He contended with it.

WE WELCOME Howard Cooke as one of those leading us in worship this morning. Our second Visiting Theologian, Clarence Nelson, is leading in worship at Calvary St. Andrews today. Later this afternoon, representatives of Third Church and Calvary St. Andrews will meet with our Jamaican visitors to plan shared ministries for the future.

FOLLOWING 10:30 WORSHIP today a Ham 'n Scalloped Potatoe Luncheon will be served by our Sr. High Fellowship. The cost is only $3.50 for adults, $2.50 for children 5-12, and free for children under 5. No reservations are required and everyone is invited. The profits will be put toward the cost of a visit to Jamaica by our Sr. Highs to visit Howard Cooke's Church there and learn more about Jamaican life and work. Join others from the congregation in the Celebration Center.

SPEAKING DURING CONCERNS OF THE CHURCH is Ginger Henrichs, Neighborhood Outreach Worker and Director of our Teenage Parent Support System (TAPSS) program.

PRAYER SERVICES FOR WORLD PEACE

Worship services to pray for world peace will be held from 12:15 to 12:45 and again from 6:15 to 6:45 on Tuesday, November 19th in the Third Church Chapel. Let us lift our hearts and voices to the Prince of Peace on the eve of the Reagan-Gorbachev Summit talks. Following the evening worship you are invited to join others in Cobbs Hill Park at 7:00 p.m. for a candlelight vigil. Each one is asked to bring a candle. Everyone in the Third Church family is invited. Bring a friend!

UNICEF CARDS AND GIFT ITEMS will be available in the Church Parlor from 10:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. this morning and for the next three Sundays, November 24 and December 1 and 8.

MEMBERS OF OUR THIRD CHURCH FAMILY will gather for the annual Christmas luncheon on December 15 following the 10:30 service. All entertainment will "happen" in all of the rooms, so no matter where you sit, you won't miss a thing: Brass Choir, Family Carollers, and a little play Would You Believe A Stable? Tickets will be $6.00 for adults, $4.50 for children under 12 and $2.50 for children under 5, for a full meal of sliced ham, chicken, green salad, hot potatoe, hot green beans, beverage, and ice cream and cookies! Tickets are on sale this morning in the Chapel Narthex after 9:30 worship, and in the Parlor Library after 10:30 worship. You may also purchase tickets from the Church Office during the week from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Tickets will be sold for "downstairs" and "upstairs" seating.

THANKSGIVING EVE WORSHIP will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the Chapel on Wednesday evening, November 27th. Everyone is invited to come and give thanks for God's gifts to us.

TALK-TO-THE-ELDERS is an opportunity for members of the congregation to express joys or concerns about the life and work of Third Church. Elders Karen Smith-Pilkington and Karen Pryor will be in the area under the Arnold Park balcony to listen and respond to your comments.

PRAYER SERVICE

FOR

WORLD PEACE

November 19, 1985

Silent Meditation

Lord, make me an instrument of thy peace. Where there is hatred, let me so love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is sadness, joy; where there is darkness, light.

Oh Divine Creator, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled, as to console; not so much to be understood, as to understand; not so much to be loved, as to love. For it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, it is in dying that we are born again to eternal life.

Prayer of St. Francis

Prelude

Call to Worship

We come together to celebrate our faith in God who led Abraham and Sarah to be leaders of a nation that would encompass all people and in a Lord who prompted Moses and Miriam to lead a people from slavery into a new land. We pray together that the same Lord will lead us to a new day when all nations shall beat their swords into plough shares and study war no longer.

Hymn

Let there be light,
Lord, God of hosts

Truro

Let there be light, Lord God of hosts,
Let there be wisdom on the earth!
Let broad humanity have birth!
Let there be deeds instead of boasts!

Within our passionate hearts instill
The calm that ends all strain and strife;
Make us your ministers of life;
Purge us from lusts that curse and kill!

Give us the peace of vision clear
To see our neighbors' good our own,
To joy and suffer not alone -
The love that casts away all fear!

Let woe and waste of warfare cease,
That useful labor yet may build
Its homes with love and laughter filled!
God, give your wayward children peace!

Prayer of Confession

All: We confess our continuing inability as citizens of this global village to live in peace and harmony and justice with one another, both within our own nation and within the family of nations ...

L: Lord, lead us to repentance.

P: We confess our tendency to exempt our nation from the sins of the world and ourselves from the sins of our nation ...

L: Lord, lead us to repentance.

Church Calendar 1985

- P: We confess that out of our lack of clarity, pride, and suspicion of our enemies we have been blinded to your judgment of our own nation's evils ...
- L: Lord, lead us to repentance.
- P: We confess that we allow the impoverishment of hundreds of millions of the world's poor to continue the economic and political consequence of spending billions on weapons to protect our wealth and power ...
- L: Lord, lead us to repentance.
- All: We confess that we our church share in full measure the responsibility for this state of the world and that we have not heeded your commandments to let you be our Lord and to love our neighbor as ourselves.
Lord, lead us to repentance.

Declaration of Pardon

Old Testament Lesson

Psalm 122

Malcolm Williamson

Refrain:

Jerusalem is built as a city: that is at unity in itself.
For thither the tribes go up, even the tribes of the Lord:
To testify unto Israel, to give thanks unto the Name of the Lord.

Refrain

For there is the seat of judgement: even the seat of the house of David.
O pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee:

Refrain

Peace be within thy walls: and plenteousness within thy palaces.
For my brethren and companions' sakes: I will wish thee prosperity.

CALL TO WORSHIP

CALL TO CONFESSION William W. Young

O Giver of life, we confess the many times when we have taken your gifts for granted. We admit our refusals to walk in your way: vows we have made and forgotten, time we have frittered away, higher purposes in us we have allowed to grow weak. We confess all the goodness of life which we have received without giving thanks, all the beauties of this world which we have ignored, all the love coming to us from other human hearts which we have accepted carelessly.

O God, you are always willing to give us more than we desire or deserve. Come now with forgiveness and healing to our confused lives and make us your own; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE PRELUDE this morning consists of three chorale preludes from the recently discovered manuscript of previously unknown Bach works. While these are early works of Bach (from around 1705), they still exhibit the wonderful genius which was his gift.

THE FLOWERS TODAY are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of L. Alfreda Hill.

PATRICIA K. YOUNGDAHL is visiting the Church School classes this morning.

PAMELA G. HARVEY will leave worship following the middle hymn to teach the Commissioning Class.

Prayers in Silence

Pastor: Lord of Gifts, from Your holy heart has come a flood of gifts to us.

People: With uplifted hearts, we have gathered around this table, to thank You with prayer and with the worship of feasting.

Pastor: We are grateful not only for the gift of life itself, but for all the gifts of friendship, love, devotion, and forgiveness that we have shared.

People: *On this feast of giving thanks, Lord God, we thank you for showing us how to return thanks by lives of service, by deeds of hospitality,
by kindness to a stranger,
and by concern for each other.*

Pastor: We are most grateful, this feast day, for the way You, our hidden God, have become visible to us
in one another,
in countless daily gifts,
and in the marvels of creation.

All: *Come, Lord of Gifts, bless our table and all the food
of this feast. Amen.*

Almighty God, who sent your Son to earth to be born in a shed, lit by a star that only the wise could see, sung by angels that only shepherds in the fields could hear, keep us, we pray Thee, from the folly of preparing for His coming with empty busyness and cheap display.
May we not be so crowded with the noise and clutter of

Announcements

NEXT SUNDAY, December 8, there will be the following changes because of "St. Nicholas" in worship. Children, 3 years old through Grade 3 will go directly to the classroom at 10:30 a.m. and will attend classes until 12:00 noon. Junior Choir and the Boys' Bell Choir will be participating in the Worship service. Children in Grades 4 through 8 who are non-choir members are encouraged to attend worship with their family. There will be no Church School for Grades 4-8.

JAMAICA MEETING SET for next Sunday, December 8, immediately following 10:30 worship in the Finney Room. We will be discussing tentative plans for an adult and youth exchange, ways we can share needed resources, and the Farm Heights Housing Project, a ministry supported by St. Paul's Church in Montego Bay. Plan to join others interested in this opportunity.

SINGLES BRUNCH is planned for next Sunday, December 8 at the home of Laurie Witmer, 377 Barrington Street. The main course will be provided. Please bring one dozen of your favorite Christmas Cookie. All younger single people are invited.

1985 CHRISTMAS OFFERING supports two specific needs:

1. It is the sole source of funds for supplemental pensions to retired church workers and their families, and helps to provide nursing home care assistance to those with special needs, and 2. It helps to promote specific educational programs for ethnic and racial minority students. You may contribute anytime between now and December 22nd to this Special Offering.

CHRISTMAS FLOWER donations in memory of a loved one are now being received. Please mark the gift for "Christmas Flowers" and be sure to include the name of the person in whose memory the gift is made. Those names will appear in the Bulletin on Sunday, December 22nd. The deadline for receiving the names is December 16.

ANNUAL CHRISTMAS LUNCHEON tickets are available for downstairs seating. You may purchase them in the Narthex of Chapel or in the Parlor after Church. The luncheon is December 15th.

Unison Prayer

Draw near, O God, from heights of holiness and from depths of mystery. Look mercifully upon us who, dwelling amid the insecurities of this mortal life, are tempted to guard every advantage and keep everything as if our life could be guaranteed by what we have or what we enjoy. Help us to discover again that bread broken with one in need is bread shared with you. Make our hearts open-handed, and if it imperils the petty securities of habit and place, let it be to the saving of our souls in Christ's name. Amen.

THE FLOWERS TODAY are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Mr. and Mrs. Lelund D. Judd and Mrs. Gordon E. Thing.

Church Calendar 1985

PARTICIPATING IN WORSHIP this morning are Pamela Fulton, a Senior at Colgate Rochester Divinity School, and a student intern at Third Church this year, and Steven Kane, our tenor soloist. Steve is the Choir Director and Organist at Temple B'rith Kodesh.

THE CHRISTMAS OFFERING

Our gifts are making a difference in the lives of students at Barber-Scotia College, in Concord, N.C., where a new Medical Technology Program funded in part by the Christmas Offering will offer new career opportunities for minority students in the medical professions and the physical sciences. In recent years the number of minorities in these professions has decreased sharply. Through this new program, Barber-Scotia is working to open these career options to its students and to ensure that blacks will be fairly represented in the fields of medicine and science in the future. Among black students in the South, our gifts to the Christmas Offering are helping to make a difference.

PICTORIAL DIRECTORY pictures of new members who have joined Third Church since 1983 will be taken soon. Please sign up for your appointment to be photographed. You may sign up after Chapel in the Chapel Narthex, or after Church at the table outside Johnston Hall.

AN ORGAN AND TRUMPET RECITAL will be held on Sunday, December 22 immediately following the 10:30 worship in the Church. Our Assistant Organist, Jane Brinkman, and Doug Prosser, a student of trumpet from the Eastman School of Music, will gift us with an Advent Recital. Everyone is invited.

CHRISTMAS OFFERING OF FOOD. This year the Outreach Commission decided to make and deliver 50 Christmas dinners in the Parsells Community. You can help by (1) bringing food [canned meat, stuffing mix, cranberry sauce, yams, potatoes, etc.] to Church on Sunday, December 15; (2) calling the Church Office and donating fresh meat on December 22; or (3) delivering a Christmas basket after Church on December 22. Call the Church Office to let us know if you plan to do this.

Unison Prayer

God our Creator and Redeemer, in whom our joy finds perfect peace, enter into the crowded inn of our life, quiet the tumult and the disorder, and let your strength impel us to make an ample place for the advent of your Son, our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Move us by such joy as we have had in Jesus Christ and in you to praise your holy will and wisdom. Make us glad, after the way of thy spirit, through Jesus Christ. Amen.

SAINT NICOLAS

by Benjamin Britten

Chancel Choir: Our eyes are blinded by the holiness you bear. The bishop's robe, the mitre and the cross of gold obscure the simple man within the Saint. Strip off your glory, Nicolas, and speak!

Nicolas: Across the tremendous bridge of sixteen hundred years I come to stand in worship with you as I stood among my faithful congregation long ago. All who knelt beside me then are gone. Their name is dust, their tombs are grass and clay. Yet still their shining seed of faith survives in you! It weathers time, it springs again in you! With you it stands like forest oak or withers with the grasses underfoot. Preserve the living faith for which your fathers fought! For faith was won by centuries of sacrifice and many martyrs died that you might worship God.

Chancel Choir: Help us, Lord! to find the hidden road that leads from love to greater love, from faith to greater faith. Strengthen us, O Lord! Screw up our strength to serve thee with simplicity.

Junior Choir and Boy Nicolas: Nicolas was born in answer to prayer, and leaping from his mother's womb he cried, God be glorified! Swaddling bands and crib awaited him there, but Nicolas clapped both his hands and cried, God be glorified. Innocent and joyful, naked and fair, he came in pride on earth to abide; God be glorified! Water rippled welcome in the bathtub by his side, he dived in openeyed: he swam: he cried, God be glorified! When he went to Church at Christmastide, he climbed up to the font to be baptized, God be glorified! Pilgrims came to kneel and pray by his side. He grew in grace, his name was sanctified. God be glorified! Nicolas grew in innocence and pride. His glory spread a rainbow round the countryside, "Nicolas will be a Saint!" the neighbors cried. God be glorified!

Nicolas: My parents died, all too soon I left the tranquil beauty of their home, and knew the wider world of man. Poor man! I found him solitary, racked by doubt: born, bred, doomed to die in everlasting fear of everlasting death: the foolish toy of time, the darling of decay - hopeless, faithless, defying God. Heartsick, in hope to mask the twisted face of poverty, I sold my lands to feed the poor. I gave my goods to charity. But love demanded more. Heartsick, I cast away all things that could distract my mind from full devotion to His will; I thrust my happiness behind but love desired more still. Heartsick, I called on God to purge my angry soul, to be my only master, friend and guide. I begged for sweet humility and love was satisfied.

Chancel Choir:

Nicolas sailed for Palestine across the sunlit seas. The south west wind blew soft and fair, seagulls hovered through the air, and spices scented the breeze. Everyone felt that land was near; all dangers now were past; except for one who knelt in prayer, fingers clasped and head quite bare, alone by the missenmast. The sailors jeered at Nicolas, who paid them no regard, until the hour of sunset came when up he stood and stopped their game of staking coins on cards. Nicolas spoke and prophesied a tempest far ahead. The sailors scorned such words of fear, since sky and stars shone bright and clear, so "nonsense" they all said. Darkness was soon on top of them, but still the south wind blew. The Captain went below to sleep, and left the helmsman there to keep his course with one of the crew.

Nicolas swore he'd punish them for mocking at the Lord. The wind arose, the thunder roared, lightning split the waves that poured in wild cascades on board. Waterspouts rose in majesty until the ship was tossed abaft, aback, astern, abeam, lit by lightning's livid gleam, and all aboard cried, "Lightning hisses through the night, blinding sight with living light! Ah! ... Man the pumps! Axes! Winds and tempests howl their cry of battle through the raging sky! Ah! ... Spare us! Save us! Saviour! Waves repeat their angry roar, fall and spring again once more! Let her run before the wind! Shorten sail! Reef her! Thunder rends the sky asunder with its savage shouts of wonder! Ah! ... Pray to God! Kneel and pray!" Lightning, Thunder, tempest, ocean praise their God with voice and motion.

Nicolas waited patiently till they were on their knees. Then down he knelt in thankfulness, begging God their ship to bless and make the storm to cease.

*Pickled Boys and Chancel
Choir:* Seel Three boys spring back to life, who, slaughtered by the butcher's knife, lay salted down! And entering, hand-in-hand they stand and sing.

Alleluia:
For forty years our Nicolas, our Prince of men, our shepherd and our gentle guide, walked by our side. We turned to him at birth and death, in time of famine and distress, in all our grief, to bring relief. He led us from the valleys to the pleasant hills of grace. He fought to fold us in from mortal sin. O! He was prodigal of love! A spendthrift in devotion to us all and blessed as he caressed. We keep his memory alive in legends that our children and their children's children treasure still.

A captive at the heathen court wept sorely all alone. "O Nicolas is here, my son! And he will bring you home!" "Fill, fill my sack with corn!" he said: "We die from lack of food!" And from that single sack he fed a hungry multitude. Three daughters of a nobleman were doomed to shameful sin, till our good Bishop ransomed them by throwing purses in. The gates were barred, the black flag flew, three men knelt by the block, but Nicolas burst in like flame and stayed the axe's shock. O help us, good Nicolas! Our ship is full of foam! He walked across the waves to them and led them safely home. He sat among the Bishops who were summoned to Nicaea: Then rising with the wrath of God boxed Arius's ear! He threatened Constantine the Great with bell and book and ban: Till Constantine confessed his sins like any common man. Let the legends that we tell, praise him, with our prayers as well. We keep his memory alive in legends that our children and their children's children treasure still.

Nicolas: Death I hear thy summons and I come in haste for my short life is done; And O! my soul is faint with love for Him who waits for me above. Lord I come to life, to final birth I leave the misery of earth, for light, by Thy eternal grace, where I shall greet Thee face to face. Christ, receive my soul with tenderness, for in my last of life I bless Thy name, who lived and died for me, and dying, yield my soul to Thee.

Chancel Lord, now lettest Thou Thy servant depart in peace, according to Thy word. For mine eyes have seen Thy salvation Choir: which Thou hast prepared before the face of all people to be a light to lighten the Gentiles and to be the glory of Thy people, Israel. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Congregation and all Choirs singing:

2. Deep in unfathomable mines
Of never failing skill
He treasures up His bright designs,
And works His sovereign will.
3. Ye fearful saints, fresh courage take;
The clouds ye so much dread
Are big with mercy, and shall break
In blessings on your head.

Nicolas: O God! We are all weak, sinful, foolish men. We pray from fear and from necessity at death, in sickness or private loss. Without the prick of fear our conscience sleeps, forgetful of Thy grace. Help us, O God! To see more clearly. Tame our stubborn hearts. Teach us to ask for less and offer more in gratitude to Thee. Pity our simplicity, for we are truly pitiable in thy sight. Amen.

The winds and waves lay down to rest, the sky was clear and calm. The ship sailed onward without harm and all creation sang a psalm of loving thankfulness. Beneath the stars the sailors slept exhausted by their fear, while I knelt down for love of God on high and saw His angels in the sky smile down at me, and wept.

Chancel Come stranger sent from God! Come, man of God! Stand foremost in our Church, and serve this diocese, as Bishop Nicolas, our shield, our strength, our peace!

Nicolas: I, Nicolas, Bishop of Myra and its diocese, shall with the unfailing grace of God, defend His faithful servants, comfort the widow and fatherless, and fulfil His will for this most blessed Church. Amen.

Chancel Place the mitre on your head to show your mastery of men!
Choir: Take the golden robe that covers you with Christ's authority! Wear the fine dalmatic woven with the cross of faith. Amen. Bear the crozier as a staff and comfort to your flock! Set the ring upon your hand, in sacramental sign, in sign of wedlock with thy God! Amen.

Serve the faith and spurn his enemies.
Serve the faith!

Congregation & all All people that on earth do dwell, Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice! Him serve with fear, His praise forth tell, Come ye before Him and rejoice. O enter then His gates with praise, laud and bless His name, always, for it is seemly so to do. For Why? the Lord our God is good: His mercy is for ever sure; His truth at all times firmly stood; And shall from age to age endure. Amen.

Nicolas: Persecution sprang upon our Church and stilled its voice. Eight barren years it stifled under Roman rule: And I lay bound, condemned to celebrate my lonely sacrament with prison bread, while wolves ran loose among my flock. O man! the world is set for you as for a king! Paradise is yours in loveliness. The stars shine down for you, for you the angels sing, yet you prefer your wilderness. You hug the rack of self, embrace the lash of sin, pour your treasures out to bribe distress. You build your temples fair without and foul within; you cultivate your wilderness. Yet Christ is yours, Yours! For you He lived and died. God in mercy gave His Son to bless you all, to bring you life, and Him you crucified to desecrate your wilderness. Turn, turn away from sin! Ah, bow down your hard and stubborn hearts! Confess yourselves to Him in penitence, and humbly vow your lives to Him, to holiness.

Chancel Choir: Famine tracks us down the lanes, hunger holds our horses' reins, winter heaps the roads with snow, O we have far to go! Starving beggars howl their cry, snarl to see us spurring by, times are bad and travel slow, O we have far to go!

We mourn our boys, our missing sons! We sorrow for three little ones! Timothy, Mark and John are gone. Landlord, take this piece of gold! Bring us food before the cold makes our pangs of hunger grow. O we have far to go! Day by day we seek to find some trace of them, but oh! unkind! Timothy, Mark and John are gone. Let us share this dish of meat. Come, my friends, sit down and eat! Join us, Bishop, for we know that you have far to go! Mary meek and Mother mild who lost thy Jesus as a child, our Timothy, Mark and John are gone. Come, your grace, don't eat so slow!

Nicolas: O do not taste! O do not feed on sin! But haste to save three souls in need! The mother's cry is sad and weak, within these walls they lie whom mothers sadly seek, Timothy, Mark and John, put your fleshly garments on! Come from dark oblivion! Come!

Unison Prayer

Once again, O God, we are on our way to Bethlehem. We come like shepherds, lonely and seeking. We come like wisemen, looking in the wrong places for your Son. We come because year after year we have heard the angels sing and been reminded of the gift of your love. Help us, in these days of Advent, to prepare ourselves, so that when the star shines over a stable and the angels sing the good news, we may be ready to receive your Christ because our hearts are opened and our spirits are receptive to your leading. Go before us, O God, and lead us to Christ, our light and our hope. Amen.

A spotless rose is blowing, sprung from a tender root, of ancient seers' foreshowing, of Jesse promised fruit.
Its fairest bud unfolds to light amid the cold winter, and in the dark midnight. The Rose which I am singing, whereof Isaiah said, is from its sweet root springing in Mary, purest maid. For through our God's great love and might, the Blessed Babe she bare us in a cold, cold winter's night.

THE FLOWERS THIS MORNING are given to the Glory of God and in loving memory of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel I. Mayne.

CHURCH SCHOOL CLASSES will dismiss immediately following 10:30 worship this morning so that all who have tickets may attend the Annual Christmas Luncheon.

THE SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM will be celebrated next Sunday. If you have a child to be baptized, please leave your name in the Church Office this morning.

THE CHRISTMAS OFFERING Our gifts provide Supplemental Pensions and Nursing Home Care Assistance to retired Church workers and their survivors, people like Anna Beth Colclough, who for many years supported her late husband, the Rev. John Hackney Colclough, in ministries in New York, New Jersey, Ohio and Pennsylvania. Mrs. Colclough is now 103 years old and is a recipient of both supplemental pensions and nursing home care assistance. She has continued to lead a full life and to be a blessing to those around her -- thanks in part to our gifts to the Christmas Offering.

CHRISTMAS OFFERINGS OF FOOD

This year the Outreach Commission decided to make and deliver 50 Christmas dinners in the Parsells Community. You can help by (1) bringing food, canned, packaged or fresh, next Sunday December 22, to Church (please sign up in the Church Office this morning if you intend to do that), or, (2) delivering a basket of food after Church next Sunday. It would be helpful to know this in advance, too.

UP-DATE FOR OUR PICTORIAL CHURCH DIRECTORY

For those members who have joined Third Church since 1983, or for those whose picture does not appear in the Directory now, you may sign up for your appointment to be photographed. Someone will be available in the Narthex of Chapel at 10:15, or in the Church Office at 11:30.

LIGHTING OF THE FOURTH ADVENT CANDLE #Patricia K. Youngdahl

Leader: At various times in the past and in various different ways, God spoke to our ancestors through the prophets.

People: In our own time, God has spoken to us through a Son, the Son that God has appointed to inherit everything.

Leader: Christ is the radiant light of God's glory and the perfect copy of God's nature.

People: And now Christ is as far above the angels as the title which he has inherited is higher than theirs.

Choral Response

Unison Prayer

Great God: we praise you for Jesus Christ, who came as light in darkness. We thank you for the prophets' hope, the angels' song, for the birth in Bethlehem. We thank you that in Jesus you joined us, sharing human hurts and pleasures. Glory to you for your wonderful love.
Glory to you for your Word made flesh. Glory to you, eternal God; through Jesus Christ, Lord of lords, and King of kings, forever. Amen.

FIRST LESSON Luke 2:1-7

ANTHEM Jesus! Name of Wondrous Love Arr. Held Betsy Marvin, alto

Jesus! Name of wondrous love, name all other names above, unto which must every knee bow in deep humility.
Jesus! Name decreed of old, to the maiden mother told, kneeling in her lowly cell, by the angel Gabriel. Jesus!
Name of priceless worth to the fallen sons of earth for the promise that it gave, "Jesus shall His people save." Jesus! Name of mercy mild, given to the holy child when the cup of human woe first He tasted here below. Jesus!
Only name that's giv'n under all the mighty heav'n whereby man, enslaved, bursts his fetters and is saved.
Jesus! Name of wondrous love, human name of God above, pleading only this, we flee, helpless, O our God, to Thee.

#OFFERTORY Ye Shall Know That the Lord Will Come Willan
James Demler, baritone

Ye shall know this day that the Lord will come, and in the morning ye shall see his glory. The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light, and they that dwell in the land of the Shadow of death upon them hath the light shined. Whom beheld ye, O shepherds, tell us; declare to us the tidings, on earth who hath appeared? We beheld an infant, the newborn Lord and Savior, amidst a choir of angels. Alleluya. The Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us: and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father full of grace and truth. Christ is born, go forth to meet Him, Christ by all the heav'n adored; singing songs of welcome, greet him, for the earth receives her Lord. All ye nations shout and sing, for he comes, your glorious King!

O Little Town of Bethlehem

O little town of Bethlehem,
 How still we see thee lie;
 Above thy deep and dreamless sleep,
 The silent stars go by.
 Yet in thy dark streets shineth,
 The everlasting light,
 The hopes and fears of all the years,
 Are met in thee tonight.

For Christ is born of Mary;
 And gathered all above,
 While mortals sleep, the angels keep Their watch of wondering love.

Glorious now behold Him arise,
 King and God and Sacrifice;
 Allelulia, Allelulia,
 Sounds through the earth and skies.

I love Thee, Lord Jesus, look down from the sky,
And stay by my side until morning is nigh.

Be near me, Lord Jesus; I ask Thee to stay
Close by me forever and love me, I pray.

Gabriel's Message

The Coming of Jesus is Announced
Pamela G. Harvey
Basque Noel

The angel Gabriel from heaven came, his wings as drifted snow, his eyes as flame; "All hail," said he, "thou lowly maiden Mary, most highly favor'd lady", Gloria! "For known a bless'd Mother thou shalt be, all generations laud and honor thee, thy Son shall be Emmanuel, by seers foretold. Most highly favor'd lady," Gloria! Then gentle Mary meekly bowed her head, "To me be as it pleaseth God," she said, "My soul shall laud and magnify His Holy Name." Of her, Emmanuel, the Christ, was born in Bethlehem, all on a Christmas morn, and Christian folk throughout the world will ever say, Most highly favor'd lady. Gloria!

ALL CHILDREN in Grades 1-8 are invited to attend worship today with their families. Children 3 years old through Kindergarten will leave worship during the middle hymn for child care in the Celebration Center. These children may be picked up immediately following worship.

THIS IS THE LORD'S TABLE. To it are invited all baptized Christians of any tradition.

WE EXTEND A SPECIAL WELCOME to our college young people who are home for the holidays, and appreciate the participation of the readers and the elders who are assisting this morning.

COLLEGE STUDENTS are invited to have pizza in the Parlor after 10:30 Church this morning with time to meet friends from other colleges and schools.

CHURCH ENVELOPES are available on the table outside the Church Office for those who have requested them.
